GRADE 9 ENGLISH
FULL-YEAR SCHEME OF WORK

Teacher-prepared planning document aligned to the KICD Grade 9 English Curriculum Design

Planning note: The Grade 9 English design organises learning around 15 themes and four main skill areas: Listening and Speaking, Reading, Grammar in Use and Writing. The 150-lesson annual plan below allocates 10 lessons to each theme and 50 lessons per term (5 lessons per week for 10 teaching weeks). This is a practical planning arrangement; schools should adjust it to the official detailed design, calendar, learner needs and selected KICD-approved class reader. Class-reader activities focus on transferable literary skills and should use the play selected by the school.

School: _____	Teacher: _____	TSC No.: _____	Year: _____
Learning Area: English	Grade: 9	Term: All Terms	Lessons: 150

TERM 1

WK	LSN	STRAND	SUB-STRAND / FOCUS	LESSON LEARNING OUTCOMES	LEARNING EXPERIENCES	KEY INQUIRY QUESTIONS	LEARNING RESOURCES	ASSESSMENT METHODS	REFLECTION
1	1	1.0 Listening and Speaking	Polite language – euphemism	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify and explain key features of polite language – euphemism in the context of citizenship. Skills: apply appropriate listening and speaking strategies when discussing citizenship. Attitude: demonstrate confidence, courtesy and respect for differing views during oral interaction.	The learner is guided to listen to a model dialogue, speech or recording; identify language features; practise in pairs or groups; role-play or deliver a short oral response; and give constructive feedback.	How can effective listening and speaking improve communication?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
1	2	1.0 Listening and Speaking	Polite language – euphemism	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify and explain key features of polite language – euphemism in the context of citizenship. Skills: apply appropriate listening and speaking strategies when discussing citizenship. Attitude: demonstrate confidence, courtesy and respect for differing views during oral interaction.	The learner is guided to listen to a model dialogue, speech or recording; identify language features; practise in pairs or groups; role-play or deliver a short oral response; and give constructive feedback. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How can effective listening and speaking improve communication?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
1	3	2.0 Reading	Grade-appropriate texts; identifying bias and sensitive wording	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify main ideas, supporting details and relevant vocabulary in texts related to citizenship. Skills: read and interpret a suitable text, including grade-appropriate texts; identifying bias and sensitive wording, and support responses with evidence from the text. Attitude: demonstrate curiosity, respect for authors' ideas and a positive attitude towards independent reading.	The learner is guided to preview a suitable text; read silently or aloud; infer meaning from context; identify main ideas and details; answer comprehension questions; and share interpretations.	How does reading help us understand information and ideas?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
1	4	2.0 Reading	Grade-appropriate texts; identifying bias and sensitive wording	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify main ideas, supporting details and relevant vocabulary	The learner is guided to preview a suitable text; read silently or aloud; infer meaning from context; identify main ideas and details; answer	How does reading help us understand information and ideas?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources;	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and	_____

				in texts related to citizenship. Skills: read and interpret a suitable text, including grade-appropriate texts; identifying bias and sensitive wording, and support responses with evidence from the text. Attitude: demonstrate curiosity, respect for authors' ideas and a positive attitude towards independent reading.	comprehension questions; and share interpretations. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.		worksheets; library and digital texts.	peer/self-assessment as appropriate.
1	5	3.0 Grammar in Use	Gender-neutral language	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: explain the form and use of gender-neutral language. Skills: identify and use gender-neutral language accurately in meaningful spoken and written sentences. Attitude: demonstrate care and self-correction when using language.	The learner is guided to notice examples in a contextual passage; infer the language rule; classify examples; complete guided exercises; and apply the structure in original sentences.	How does accurate grammar make communication clearer?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
2	1	3.0 Grammar in Use	Gender-neutral language	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: explain the form and use of gender-neutral language. Skills: identify and use gender-neutral language accurately in meaningful spoken and written sentences. Attitude: demonstrate care and self-correction when using language.	The learner is guided to notice examples in a contextual passage; infer the language rule; classify examples; complete guided exercises; and apply the structure in original sentences. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How does accurate grammar make communication clearer?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
2	2	2.0 Reading	Class reader – structure and setting	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify selected literary elements and features relevant to class reader – structure and setting. Skills: analyse a passage from the school-selected play with reference to class reader – structure and setting and support ideas with textual evidence. Attitude: appreciate literature and respect diverse interpretations and experiences.	The learner is guided to read an extract from the school-selected KICD-approved play; identify relevant literary features; discuss characters, events and ideas; cite evidence; and present a brief response.	How do literary elements help us understand a play?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
2	3	2.0 Reading	Class reader – structure and setting	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify selected literary elements and features relevant to class reader – structure and setting. Skills: analyse a passage from the school-selected play with reference to class reader – structure and setting and support ideas with textual evidence. Attitude: appreciate literature and respect diverse interpretations and experiences.	The learner is guided to read an extract from the school-selected KICD-approved play; identify relevant literary features; discuss characters, events and ideas; cite evidence; and present a brief response. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How do literary elements help us understand a play?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
2	4	4.0 Writing	Legibility and neatness	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: describe the purpose, audience and key features of legibility	The learner is guided to analyse a model text; brainstorm and organise ideas; prepare a draft; revise grammar, spelling and punctuation with peer	How can writing communicate ideas clearly and effectively?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources;	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and	_____

				and neatness. Skills: plan, draft, revise and present a coherent piece of writing related to citizenship. Attitude: demonstrate originality, neatness and responsibility in producing written work.	feedback; and publish a final version.		worksheets; library and digital texts.	peer/self-assessment as appropriate.
2	5	4.0 Writing	Legibility and neatness	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: describe the purpose, audience and key features of legibility and neatness. Skills: plan, draft, revise and present a coherent piece of writing related to citizenship. Attitude: demonstrate originality, neatness and responsibility in producing written work.	The learner is guided to analyse a model text; brainstorm and organise ideas; prepare a draft; revise grammar, spelling and punctuation with peer feedback; and publish a final version. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How can writing communicate ideas clearly and effectively?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
3	1	1.0 Listening and Speaking	Oral literature – short forms	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify and explain key features of oral literature – short forms in the context of science: fiction. Skills: apply appropriate listening and speaking strategies when discussing science: fiction. Attitude: demonstrate confidence, courtesy and respect for differing views during oral interaction.	The learner is guided to listen to a model dialogue, speech or recording; identify language features; practise in pairs or groups; role-play or deliver a short oral response; and give constructive feedback.	How can effective listening and speaking improve communication?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
3	2	1.0 Listening and Speaking	Oral literature – short forms	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify and explain key features of oral literature – short forms in the context of science: fiction. Skills: apply appropriate listening and speaking strategies when discussing science: fiction. Attitude: demonstrate confidence, courtesy and respect for differing views during oral interaction.	The learner is guided to listen to a model dialogue, speech or recording; identify language features; practise in pairs or groups; role-play or deliver a short oral response; and give constructive feedback. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How can effective listening and speaking improve communication?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
3	3	2.0 Reading	Simple poems; riddles and tongue twisters	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify main ideas, supporting details and relevant vocabulary in texts related to science: fiction. Skills: read and interpret a suitable text, including simple poems; riddles and tongue twisters, and support responses with evidence from the text. Attitude: demonstrate curiosity, respect for authors' ideas and a positive attitude towards independent reading.	The learner is guided to preview a suitable text; read silently or aloud; infer meaning from context; identify main ideas and details; answer comprehension questions; and share interpretations.	How does reading help us understand information and ideas?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
3	4	2.0 Reading	Simple poems; riddles and tongue twisters	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify main ideas, supporting details and relevant vocabulary in texts related to science: fiction. Skills: read and interpret	The learner is guided to preview a suitable text; read silently or aloud; infer meaning from context; identify main ideas and details; answer comprehension questions; and share interpretations. The	How does reading help us understand information and ideas?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____

				a suitable text, including simple poems; riddles and tongue twisters, and support responses with evidence from the text. Attitude: demonstrate curiosity, respect for authors' ideas and a positive attitude towards independent reading.	learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.
3	5	3.0 Grammar in Use	Nouns and quantifiers	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: explain the form and use of nouns and quantifiers. Skills: identify and use nouns and quantifiers accurately in meaningful spoken and written sentences. Attitude: demonstrate care and self-correction when using language.	The learner is guided to notice examples in a contextual passage; infer the language rule; classify examples; complete guided exercises; and apply the structure in original sentences.	How does accurate grammar make communication clearer?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
4	1	3.0 Grammar in Use	Nouns and quantifiers	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: explain the form and use of nouns and quantifiers. Skills: identify and use nouns and quantifiers accurately in meaningful spoken and written sentences. Attitude: demonstrate care and self-correction when using language.	The learner is guided to notice examples in a contextual passage; infer the language rule; classify examples; complete guided exercises; and apply the structure in original sentences. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How does accurate grammar make communication clearer?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
4	2	2.0 Reading	Class reader – plot	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify selected literary elements and features relevant to class reader – plot. Skills: analyse a passage from the school-selected play with reference to class reader – plot and support ideas with textual evidence. Attitude: appreciate literature and respect diverse interpretations and experiences.	The learner is guided to read an extract from the school-selected KICD-approved play; identify relevant literary features; discuss characters, events and ideas; cite evidence; and present a brief response.	How do literary elements help us understand a play?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
4	3	2.0 Reading	Class reader – plot	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify selected literary elements and features relevant to class reader – plot. Skills: analyse a passage from the school-selected play with reference to class reader – plot and support ideas with textual evidence. Attitude: appreciate literature and respect diverse interpretations and experiences.	The learner is guided to read an extract from the school-selected KICD-approved play; identify relevant literary features; discuss characters, events and ideas; cite evidence; and present a brief response. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How do literary elements help us understand a play?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
4	4	4.0 Writing	Punctuation marks	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: describe the purpose, audience and key features of punctuation marks. Skills: plan, draft, revise and present a coherent piece of writing related to science: fiction. Attitude: demonstrate originality, neatness and responsibility in producing	The learner is guided to analyse a model text; brainstorm and organise ideas; prepare a draft; revise grammar, spelling and punctuation with peer feedback; and publish a final version.	How can writing communicate ideas clearly and effectively?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____

				written work.
4	5	4.0 Writing	Punctuation marks	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: describe the purpose, audience and key features of punctuation marks. Skills: plan, draft, revise and present a coherent piece of writing related to science: fiction. Attitude: demonstrate originality, neatness and responsibility in producing written work.	The learner is guided to analyse a model text; brainstorm and organise ideas; prepare a draft; revise grammar, spelling and punctuation with peer feedback; and publish a final version. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How can writing communicate ideas clearly and effectively?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
5	1	1.0 Listening and Speaking	Listening comprehension – main idea and specific details	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify and explain key features of listening comprehension – main idea and specific details in the context of environmental conservation. Skills: apply appropriate listening and speaking strategies when discussing environmental conservation. Attitude: demonstrate confidence, courtesy and respect for differing views during oral interaction.	The learner is guided to listen to a model dialogue, speech or recording; identify language features; practise in pairs or groups; role-play or deliver a short oral response; and give constructive feedback.	How can effective listening and speaking improve communication?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
5	2	1.0 Listening and Speaking	Listening comprehension – main idea and specific details	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify and explain key features of listening comprehension – main idea and specific details in the context of environmental conservation. Skills: apply appropriate listening and speaking strategies when discussing environmental conservation. Attitude: demonstrate confidence, courtesy and respect for differing views during oral interaction.	The learner is guided to listen to a model dialogue, speech or recording; identify language features; practise in pairs or groups; role-play or deliver a short oral response; and give constructive feedback. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How can effective listening and speaking improve communication?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
5	3	2.0 Reading	Poetry writing; inferring meaning from context	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify main ideas, supporting details and relevant vocabulary in texts related to environmental conservation. Skills: read and interpret a suitable text, including poetry writing; inferring meaning from context, and support responses with evidence from the text. Attitude: demonstrate curiosity, respect for authors' ideas and a positive attitude towards independent reading.	The learner is guided to preview a suitable text; read silently or aloud; infer meaning from context; identify main ideas and details; answer comprehension questions; and share interpretations.	How does reading help us understand information and ideas?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
5	4	2.0 Reading	Poetry writing; inferring meaning from context	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify main ideas, supporting details and relevant vocabulary in texts related to environmental conservation. Skills: read and interpret a suitable text, including	The learner is guided to preview a suitable text; read silently or aloud; infer meaning from context; identify main ideas and details; answer comprehension questions; and share interpretations. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or	How does reading help us understand information and ideas?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____

				poetry writing; inferring meaning from context, and support responses with evidence from the text. Attitude: demonstrate curiosity, respect for authors' ideas and a positive attitude towards independent reading.	short independent task and reflects on progress.
5	5	3.0 Grammar in Use	Modal auxiliaries	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: explain the form and use of modal auxiliaries. Skills: identify and use modal auxiliaries accurately in meaningful spoken and written sentences. Attitude: demonstrate care and self-correction when using language.	The learner is guided to notice examples in a contextual passage; infer the language rule; classify examples; complete guided exercises; and apply the structure in original sentences.	How does accurate grammar make communication clearer?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
6	1	3.0 Grammar in Use	Modal auxiliaries	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: explain the form and use of modal auxiliaries. Skills: identify and use modal auxiliaries accurately in meaningful spoken and written sentences. Attitude: demonstrate care and self-correction when using language.	The learner is guided to notice examples in a contextual passage; infer the language rule; classify examples; complete guided exercises; and apply the structure in original sentences. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How does accurate grammar make communication clearer?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
6	2	2.0 Reading	Class reader – characters	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify selected literary elements and features relevant to class reader – characters. Skills: analyse a passage from the school-selected play with reference to class reader – characters and support ideas with textual evidence. Attitude: appreciate literature and respect diverse interpretations and experiences.	The learner is guided to read an extract from the school-selected KICD-approved play; identify relevant literary features; discuss characters, events and ideas; cite evidence; and present a brief response.	How do literary elements help us understand a play?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
6	3	2.0 Reading	Class reader – characters	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify selected literary elements and features relevant to class reader – characters. Skills: analyse a passage from the school-selected play with reference to class reader – characters and support ideas with textual evidence. Attitude: appreciate literature and respect diverse interpretations and experiences.	The learner is guided to read an extract from the school-selected KICD-approved play; identify relevant literary features; discuss characters, events and ideas; cite evidence; and present a brief response. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How do literary elements help us understand a play?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
6	4	4.0 Writing	Structure of a paragraph	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: describe the purpose, audience and key features of structure of a paragraph. Skills: plan, draft, revise and present a coherent piece of writing related to environmental conservation. Attitude: demonstrate originality, neatness and	The learner is guided to analyse a model text; brainstorm and organise ideas; prepare a draft; revise grammar, spelling and punctuation with peer feedback; and publish a final version.	How can writing communicate ideas clearly and effectively?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____

				responsibility in producing written work.
6	5	4.0 Writing	Structure of a paragraph	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: describe the purpose, audience and key features of structure of a paragraph. Skills: plan, draft, revise and present a coherent piece of writing related to environmental conservation. Attitude: demonstrate originality, neatness and responsibility in producing written work.	The learner is guided to analyse a model text; brainstorm and organise ideas; prepare a draft; revise grammar, spelling and punctuation with peer feedback; and publish a final version. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How can writing communicate ideas clearly and effectively?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
7	1	1.0 Listening and Speaking	Selective listening	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify and explain key features of selective listening in the context of consumer protection: consumer laws and policies. Skills: apply appropriate listening and speaking strategies when discussing consumer protection: consumer laws and policies. Attitude: demonstrate confidence, courtesy and respect for differing views during oral interaction.	The learner is guided to listen to a model dialogue, speech or recording; identify language features; practise in pairs or groups; role-play or deliver a short oral response; and give constructive feedback.	How can effective listening and speaking improve communication?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
7	2	1.0 Listening and Speaking	Selective listening	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify and explain key features of selective listening in the context of consumer protection: consumer laws and policies. Skills: apply appropriate listening and speaking strategies when discussing consumer protection: consumer laws and policies. Attitude: demonstrate confidence, courtesy and respect for differing views during oral interaction.	The learner is guided to listen to a model dialogue, speech or recording; identify language features; practise in pairs or groups; role-play or deliver a short oral response; and give constructive feedback. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How can effective listening and speaking improve communication?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
7	3	2.0 Reading	Reading information on consumer rights and responsibilities	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify main ideas, supporting details and relevant vocabulary in texts related to consumer protection: consumer laws and policies. Skills: read and interpret a suitable text, including reading information on consumer rights and responsibilities, and support responses with evidence from the text. Attitude: demonstrate curiosity, respect for authors' ideas and a positive attitude towards independent reading.	The learner is guided to preview a suitable text; read silently or aloud; infer meaning from context; identify main ideas and details; answer comprehension questions; and share interpretations.	How does reading help us understand information and ideas?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
7	4	2.0 Reading	Reading information on consumer rights and responsibilities	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify main ideas, supporting details and relevant vocabulary in texts related to consumer protection:	The learner is guided to preview a suitable text; read silently or aloud; infer meaning from context; identify main ideas and details; answer comprehension questions; and share	How does reading help us understand information and ideas?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____

				consumer laws and policies. Skills: read and interpret a suitable text, including reading information on consumer rights and responsibilities, and support responses with evidence from the text. Attitude: demonstrate curiosity, respect for authors' ideas and a positive attitude towards independent reading.	interpretations. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.
7	5	3.0 Grammar in Use	Present and past perfect aspect	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: explain the form and use of present and past perfect aspect. Skills: identify and use present and past perfect aspect accurately in meaningful spoken and written sentences. Attitude: demonstrate care and self-correction when using language.	The learner is guided to notice examples in a contextual passage; infer the language rule; classify examples; complete guided exercises; and apply the structure in original sentences.	How does accurate grammar make communication clearer?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
8	1	3.0 Grammar in Use	Present and past perfect aspect	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: explain the form and use of present and past perfect aspect. Skills: identify and use present and past perfect aspect accurately in meaningful spoken and written sentences. Attitude: demonstrate care and self-correction when using language.	The learner is guided to notice examples in a contextual passage; infer the language rule; classify examples; complete guided exercises; and apply the structure in original sentences. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How does accurate grammar make communication clearer?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
8	2	2.0 Reading	Class reader – themes	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify selected literary elements and features relevant to class reader – themes. Skills: analyse a passage from the school-selected play with reference to class reader – themes and support ideas with textual evidence. Attitude: appreciate literature and respect diverse interpretations and experiences.	The learner is guided to read an extract from the school-selected KICD-approved play; identify relevant literary features; discuss characters, events and ideas; cite evidence; and present a brief response.	How do literary elements help us understand a play?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
8	3	2.0 Reading	Class reader – themes	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify selected literary elements and features relevant to class reader – themes. Skills: analyse a passage from the school-selected play with reference to class reader – themes and support ideas with textual evidence. Attitude: appreciate literature and respect diverse interpretations and experiences.	The learner is guided to read an extract from the school-selected KICD-approved play; identify relevant literary features; discuss characters, events and ideas; cite evidence; and present a brief response. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How do literary elements help us understand a play?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
8	4	4.0 Writing	Descriptive paragraph	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: describe the purpose, audience and key features of descriptive paragraph. Skills: plan, draft, revise and present a coherent piece of writing related to	The learner is guided to analyse a model text; brainstorm and organise ideas; prepare a draft; revise grammar, spelling and punctuation with peer feedback; and publish a final version.	How can writing communicate ideas clearly and effectively?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____

				consumer protection: consumer laws and policies. Attitude: demonstrate originality, neatness and responsibility in producing written work.
8	5	4.0 Writing	Descriptive paragraph	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: describe the purpose, audience and key features of descriptive paragraph. Skills: plan, draft, revise and present a coherent piece of writing related to consumer protection: consumer laws and policies. Attitude: demonstrate originality, neatness and responsibility in producing written work.	The learner is guided to analyse a model text; brainstorm and organise ideas; prepare a draft; revise grammar, spelling and punctuation with peer feedback; and publish a final version. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How can writing communicate ideas clearly and effectively?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
9	1	1.0 Listening and Speaking	Pronunciation	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify and explain key features of pronunciation in the context of relationships: community. Skills: apply appropriate listening and speaking strategies when discussing relationships: community. Attitude: demonstrate confidence, courtesy and respect for differing views during oral interaction.	The learner is guided to listen to a model dialogue, speech or recording; identify language features; practise in pairs or groups; role-play or deliver a short oral response; and give constructive feedback.	How can effective listening and speaking improve communication?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
9	2	1.0 Listening and Speaking	Pronunciation	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify and explain key features of pronunciation in the context of relationships: community. Skills: apply appropriate listening and speaking strategies when discussing relationships: community. Attitude: demonstrate confidence, courtesy and respect for differing views during oral interaction.	The learner is guided to listen to a model dialogue, speech or recording; identify language features; practise in pairs or groups; role-play or deliver a short oral response; and give constructive feedback. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How can effective listening and speaking improve communication?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
9	3	2.0 Reading	Reading texts on relationships and community	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify main ideas, supporting details and relevant vocabulary in texts related to relationships: community. Skills: read and interpret a suitable text, including reading texts on relationships and community, and support responses with evidence from the text. Attitude: demonstrate curiosity, respect for authors' ideas and a positive attitude towards independent reading.	The learner is guided to preview a suitable text; read silently or aloud; infer meaning from context; identify main ideas and details; answer comprehension questions; and share interpretations.	How does reading help us understand information and ideas?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
9	4	2.0 Reading	Reading texts on relationships and community	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify main ideas, supporting details and relevant vocabulary in texts related to relationships: community.	The learner is guided to preview a suitable text; read silently or aloud; infer meaning from context; identify main ideas and details; answer comprehension questions; and share	How does reading help us understand information and ideas?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____

				Skills: read and interpret a suitable text, including reading texts on relationships and community, and support responses with evidence from the text. Attitude: demonstrate curiosity, respect for authors' ideas and a positive attitude towards independent reading.	interpretations. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.
9	5	3.0 Grammar in Use	Order of adjectives	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: explain the form and use of order of adjectives. Skills: identify and use order of adjectives accurately in meaningful spoken and written sentences. Attitude: demonstrate care and self-correction when using language.	The learner is guided to notice examples in a contextual passage; infer the language rule; classify examples; complete guided exercises; and apply the structure in original sentences.	How does accurate grammar make communication clearer?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
10	1	3.0 Grammar in Use	Order of adjectives	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: explain the form and use of order of adjectives. Skills: identify and use order of adjectives accurately in meaningful spoken and written sentences. Attitude: demonstrate care and self-correction when using language.	The learner is guided to notice examples in a contextual passage; infer the language rule; classify examples; complete guided exercises; and apply the structure in original sentences. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How does accurate grammar make communication clearer?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
10	2	2.0 Reading	Class reader – style	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify selected literary elements and features relevant to class reader – style. Skills: analyse a passage from the school-selected play with reference to class reader – style and support ideas with textual evidence. Attitude: appreciate literature and respect diverse interpretations and experiences.	The learner is guided to read an extract from the school-selected KICD-approved play; identify relevant literary features; discuss characters, events and ideas; cite evidence; and present a brief response.	How do literary elements help us understand a play?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
10	3	2.0 Reading	Class reader – style	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify selected literary elements and features relevant to class reader – style. Skills: analyse a passage from the school-selected play with reference to class reader – style and support ideas with textual evidence. Attitude: appreciate literature and respect diverse interpretations and experiences.	The learner is guided to read an extract from the school-selected KICD-approved play; identify relevant literary features; discuss characters, events and ideas; cite evidence; and present a brief response. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How do literary elements help us understand a play?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
10	4	4.0 Writing	Letter of application	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: describe the purpose, audience and key features of letter of application. Skills: plan, draft, revise and present a coherent piece of writing related to relationships: community. Attitude: demonstrate	The learner is guided to analyse a model text; brainstorm and organise ideas; prepare a draft; revise grammar, spelling and punctuation with peer feedback; and publish a final version.	How can writing communicate ideas clearly and effectively?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____

				originality, neatness and responsibility in producing written work.
10	5	4.0 Writing	Letter of application	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: describe the purpose, audience and key features of letter of application. Skills: plan, draft, revise and present a coherent piece of writing related to relationships: community. Attitude: demonstrate originality, neatness and responsibility in producing written work.	The learner is guided to analyse a model text; brainstorm and organise ideas; prepare a draft; revise grammar, spelling and punctuation with peer feedback; and publish a final version. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How can writing communicate ideas clearly and effectively?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____

Teacher's reflection on the term: _____

HOD/Coordinator: _____ Date: _____

TERM 2

WK	LSN	STRAND	SUB-STRAND / FOCUS	LESSON LEARNING OUTCOMES	LEARNING EXPERIENCES	KEY INQUIRY QUESTIONS	LEARNING RESOURCES	ASSESSMENT METHODS	REFLECTION
11	1	1.0 Listening and Speaking	Conversational skills – negotiation skills	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify and explain key features of conversational skills – negotiation skills in the context of leisure time. Skills: apply appropriate listening and speaking strategies when discussing leisure time. Attitude: demonstrate confidence, courtesy and respect for differing views during oral interaction.	The learner is guided to listen to a model dialogue, speech or recording; identify language features; practise in pairs or groups; role-play or deliver a short oral response; and give constructive feedback.	How can effective listening and speaking improve communication?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
11	2	1.0 Listening and Speaking	Conversational skills – negotiation skills	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify and explain key features of conversational skills – negotiation skills in the context of leisure time. Skills: apply appropriate listening and speaking strategies when discussing leisure time. Attitude: demonstrate confidence, courtesy and respect for differing views during oral interaction.	The learner is guided to listen to a model dialogue, speech or recording; identify language features; practise in pairs or groups; role-play or deliver a short oral response; and give constructive feedback. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How can effective listening and speaking improve communication?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
11	3	2.0 Reading	Reading for information on leisure activities	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify main ideas, supporting details and relevant vocabulary in texts related to leisure time. Skills: read and interpret a suitable text, including reading for information on leisure activities, and support responses with evidence from the text. Attitude: demonstrate curiosity, respect for authors' ideas and a positive attitude towards independent reading.	The learner is guided to preview a suitable text; read silently or aloud; infer meaning from context; identify main ideas and details; answer comprehension questions; and share interpretations.	How does reading help us understand information and ideas?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
11	4	2.0 Reading	Reading for information on leisure activities	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify main	The learner is guided to preview a suitable text; read silently or aloud; infer meaning from	How does reading help us understand information and ideas?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play;	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar	_____

				ideas, supporting details and relevant vocabulary in texts related to leisure time. Skills: read and interpret a suitable text, including reading for information on leisure activities, and support responses with evidence from the text. Attitude: demonstrate curiosity, respect for authors' ideas and a positive attitude towards independent reading.	context; identify main ideas and details; answer comprehension questions; and share interpretations. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.		dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.
11	5	3.0 Grammar in Use	Comparison of adverbs	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: explain the form and use of comparison of adverbs. Skills: identify and use comparison of adverbs accurately in meaningful spoken and written sentences. Attitude: demonstrate care and self-correction when using language.	The learner is guided to notice examples in a contextual passage; infer the language rule; classify examples; complete guided exercises; and apply the structure in original sentences.	How does accurate grammar make communication clearer?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
12	1	3.0 Grammar in Use	Comparison of adverbs	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: explain the form and use of comparison of adverbs. Skills: identify and use comparison of adverbs accurately in meaningful spoken and written sentences. Attitude: demonstrate care and self-correction when using language.	The learner is guided to notice examples in a contextual passage; infer the language rule; classify examples; complete guided exercises; and apply the structure in original sentences. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How does accurate grammar make communication clearer?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
12	2	2.0 Reading	Class reader – play (project)	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify selected literary elements and features relevant to class reader – play (project). Skills: analyse a passage from the school-selected play with reference to class reader – play (project) and support ideas with textual evidence. Attitude: appreciate literature and respect diverse interpretations and experiences.	The learner is guided to read an extract from the school-selected KICD-approved play; identify relevant literary features; discuss characters, events and ideas; cite evidence; and present a brief response.	How do literary elements help us understand a play?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
12	3	2.0 Reading	Class reader – play (project)	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify selected literary elements and features relevant to class reader – play (project). Skills: analyse a passage from the school-selected play with reference to class reader – play (project) and support ideas with textual evidence. Attitude: appreciate literature and respect diverse interpretations and experiences.	The learner is guided to read an extract from the school-selected KICD-approved play; identify relevant literary features; discuss characters, events and ideas; cite evidence; and present a brief response. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How do literary elements help us understand a play?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
12	4	4.0 Writing	Spelling	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: describe the purpose, audience and	The learner is guided to analyse a model text; brainstorm and organise ideas; prepare a draft; revise grammar, spelling	How can writing communicate ideas clearly and effectively?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts;	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product,	_____

				key features of spelling. Skills: plan, draft, revise and present a coherent piece of writing related to leisure time. Attitude: demonstrate originality, neatness and responsibility in producing written work.	and punctuation with peer feedback; and publish a final version.		audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.
12	5	4.0 Writing	Spelling	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: describe the purpose, audience and key features of spelling. Skills: plan, draft, revise and present a coherent piece of writing related to leisure time. Attitude: demonstrate originality, neatness and responsibility in producing written work.	The learner is guided to analyse a model text; brainstorm and organise ideas; prepare a draft; revise grammar, spelling and punctuation with peer feedback; and publish a final version. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How can writing communicate ideas clearly and effectively?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
13	1	1.0 Listening and Speaking	Listening for details	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify and explain key features of listening for details in the context of natural resources: marine life. Skills: apply appropriate listening and speaking strategies when discussing natural resources: marine life. Attitude: demonstrate confidence, courtesy and respect for differing views during oral interaction.	The learner is guided to listen to a model dialogue, speech or recording; identify language features; practise in pairs or groups; role-play or deliver a short oral response; and give constructive feedback.	How can effective listening and speaking improve communication?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
13	2	1.0 Listening and Speaking	Listening for details	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify and explain key features of listening for details in the context of natural resources: marine life. Skills: apply appropriate listening and speaking strategies when discussing natural resources: marine life. Attitude: demonstrate confidence, courtesy and respect for differing views during oral interaction.	The learner is guided to listen to a model dialogue, speech or recording; identify language features; practise in pairs or groups; role-play or deliver a short oral response; and give constructive feedback. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How can effective listening and speaking improve communication?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
13	3	2.0 Reading	Reading informational texts about marine life	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify main ideas, supporting details and relevant vocabulary in texts related to natural resources: marine life. Skills: read and interpret a suitable text, including reading informational texts about marine life, and support responses with evidence from the text. Attitude: demonstrate curiosity, respect for authors' ideas and a positive attitude towards independent reading.	The learner is guided to preview a suitable text; read silently or aloud; infer meaning from context; identify main ideas and details; answer comprehension questions; and share interpretations.	How does reading help us understand information and ideas?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
13	4	2.0 Reading	Reading informational texts about marine life	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify main ideas, supporting details and relevant vocabulary in texts related to natural resources: marine life. Skills: read and interpret	The learner is guided to preview a suitable text; read silently or aloud; infer meaning from context; identify main ideas and details; answer comprehension questions; and share interpretations. The	How does reading help us understand information and ideas?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____

				a suitable text, including reading informational texts about marine life, and support responses with evidence from the text. Attitude: demonstrate curiosity, respect for authors' ideas and a positive attitude towards independent reading.	learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.
13	5	3.0 Grammar in Use	Relative and interrogative pronouns	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: explain the form and use of relative and interrogative pronouns. Skills: identify and use relative and interrogative pronouns accurately in meaningful spoken and written sentences. Attitude: demonstrate care and self-correction when using language.	The learner is guided to notice examples in a contextual passage; infer the language rule; classify examples; complete guided exercises; and apply the structure in original sentences.	How does accurate grammar make communication clearer?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
14	1	3.0 Grammar in Use	Relative and interrogative pronouns	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: explain the form and use of relative and interrogative pronouns. Skills: identify and use relative and interrogative pronouns accurately in meaningful spoken and written sentences. Attitude: demonstrate care and self-correction when using language.	The learner is guided to notice examples in a contextual passage; infer the language rule; classify examples; complete guided exercises; and apply the structure in original sentences. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How does accurate grammar make communication clearer?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
14	2	2.0 Reading	Class reader – lessons learnt	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify selected literary elements and features relevant to class reader – lessons learnt. Skills: analyse a passage from the school-selected play with reference to class reader – lessons learnt and support ideas with textual evidence. Attitude: appreciate literature and respect diverse interpretations and experiences.	The learner is guided to read an extract from the school-selected KICD-approved play; identify relevant literary features; discuss characters, events and ideas; cite evidence; and present a brief response.	How do literary elements help us understand a play?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
14	3	2.0 Reading	Class reader – lessons learnt	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify selected literary elements and features relevant to class reader – lessons learnt. Skills: analyse a passage from the school-selected play with reference to class reader – lessons learnt and support ideas with textual evidence. Attitude: appreciate literature and respect diverse interpretations and experiences.	The learner is guided to read an extract from the school-selected KICD-approved play; identify relevant literary features; discuss characters, events and ideas; cite evidence; and present a brief response. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How do literary elements help us understand a play?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
14	4	4.0 Writing	The writing process – steps	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: describe the purpose, audience and key features of the writing process – steps. Skills: plan, draft, revise and present a coherent	The learner is guided to analyse a model text; brainstorm and organise ideas; prepare a draft; revise grammar, spelling and punctuation with peer feedback; and publish a final version.	How can writing communicate ideas clearly and effectively?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____

				piece of writing related to natural resources: marine life. Attitude: demonstrate originality, neatness and responsibility in producing written work.
14	5	4.0 Writing	The writing process – steps	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: describe the purpose, audience and key features of the writing process – steps. Skills: plan, draft, revise and present a coherent piece of writing related to natural resources: marine life. Attitude: demonstrate originality, neatness and responsibility in producing written work.	The learner is guided to analyse a model text; brainstorm and organise ideas; prepare a draft; revise grammar, spelling and punctuation with peer feedback; and publish a final version. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How can writing communicate ideas clearly and effectively?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
15	1	1.0 Listening and Speaking	Oral poetry	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify and explain key features of oral poetry in the context of tourism: international. Skills: apply appropriate listening and speaking strategies when discussing tourism: international. Attitude: demonstrate confidence, courtesy and respect for differing views during oral interaction.	The learner is guided to listen to a model dialogue, speech or recording; identify language features; practise in pairs or groups; role-play or deliver a short oral response; and give constructive feedback.	How can effective listening and speaking improve communication?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
15	2	1.0 Listening and Speaking	Oral poetry	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify and explain key features of oral poetry in the context of tourism: international. Skills: apply appropriate listening and speaking strategies when discussing tourism: international. Attitude: demonstrate confidence, courtesy and respect for differing views during oral interaction.	The learner is guided to listen to a model dialogue, speech or recording; identify language features; practise in pairs or groups; role-play or deliver a short oral response; and give constructive feedback. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How can effective listening and speaking improve communication?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
15	3	2.0 Reading	Reading travel texts, brochures and descriptions	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify main ideas, supporting details and relevant vocabulary in texts related to tourism: international. Skills: read and interpret a suitable text, including reading travel texts, brochures and descriptions, and support responses with evidence from the text. Attitude: demonstrate curiosity, respect for authors' ideas and a positive attitude towards independent reading.	The learner is guided to preview a suitable text; read silently or aloud; infer meaning from context; identify main ideas and details; answer comprehension questions; and share interpretations.	How does reading help us understand information and ideas?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
15	4	2.0 Reading	Reading travel texts, brochures and descriptions	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify main ideas, supporting details and relevant vocabulary in texts related to tourism: international. Skills: read and interpret a suitable text, including reading travel texts,	The learner is guided to preview a suitable text; read silently or aloud; infer meaning from context; identify main ideas and details; answer comprehension questions; and share interpretations. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or	How does reading help us understand information and ideas?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____

				brochures and descriptions, and support responses with evidence from the text. Attitude: demonstrate curiosity, respect for authors' ideas and a positive attitude towards independent reading.	short independent task and reflects on progress.
15	5	3.0 Grammar in Use	Complex prepositions	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: explain the form and use of complex prepositions. Skills: identify and use complex prepositions accurately in meaningful spoken and written sentences. Attitude: demonstrate care and self-correction when using language.	The learner is guided to notice examples in a contextual passage; infer the language rule; classify examples; complete guided exercises; and apply the structure in original sentences.	How does accurate grammar make communication clearer?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
16	1	3.0 Grammar in Use	Complex prepositions	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: explain the form and use of complex prepositions. Skills: identify and use complex prepositions accurately in meaningful spoken and written sentences. Attitude: demonstrate care and self-correction when using language.	The learner is guided to notice examples in a contextual passage; infer the language rule; classify examples; complete guided exercises; and apply the structure in original sentences. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How does accurate grammar make communication clearer?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
16	2	2.0 Reading	Class reader – characterisation	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify selected literary elements and features relevant to class reader – characterisation. Skills: analyse a passage from the school-selected play with reference to class reader – characterisation and support ideas with textual evidence. Attitude: appreciate literature and respect diverse interpretations and experiences.	The learner is guided to read an extract from the school-selected KICD-approved play; identify relevant literary features; discuss characters, events and ideas; cite evidence; and present a brief response.	How do literary elements help us understand a play?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
16	3	2.0 Reading	Class reader – characterisation	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify selected literary elements and features relevant to class reader – characterisation. Skills: analyse a passage from the school-selected play with reference to class reader – characterisation and support ideas with textual evidence. Attitude: appreciate literature and respect diverse interpretations and experiences.	The learner is guided to read an extract from the school-selected KICD-approved play; identify relevant literary features; discuss characters, events and ideas; cite evidence; and present a brief response. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How do literary elements help us understand a play?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
16	4	4.0 Writing	Assessing writing	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: describe the purpose, audience and key features of assessing writing. Skills: plan, draft, revise and present a coherent piece of writing related to tourism: international.	The learner is guided to analyse a model text; brainstorm and organise ideas; prepare a draft; revise grammar, spelling and punctuation with peer feedback; and publish a final version.	How can writing communicate ideas clearly and effectively?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____

				Attitude: demonstrate originality, neatness and responsibility in producing written work.
16	5	4.0 Writing	Assessing writing	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: describe the purpose, audience and key features of assessing writing. Skills: plan, draft, revise and present a coherent piece of writing related to tourism: international. Attitude: demonstrate originality, neatness and responsibility in producing written work.	The learner is guided to analyse a model text; brainstorm and organise ideas; prepare a draft; revise grammar, spelling and punctuation with peer feedback; and publish a final version. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How can writing communicate ideas clearly and effectively?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
17	1	1.0 Listening and Speaking	Diphthongs and sentence stress	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify and explain key features of diphthongs and sentence stress in the context of heroes and heroines: world. Skills: apply appropriate listening and speaking strategies when discussing heroes and heroines: world. Attitude: demonstrate confidence, courtesy and respect for differing views during oral interaction.	The learner is guided to listen to a model dialogue, speech or recording; identify language features; practise in pairs or groups; role-play or deliver a short oral response; and give constructive feedback.	How can effective listening and speaking improve communication?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
17	2	1.0 Listening and Speaking	Diphthongs and sentence stress	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify and explain key features of diphthongs and sentence stress in the context of heroes and heroines: world. Skills: apply appropriate listening and speaking strategies when discussing heroes and heroines: world. Attitude: demonstrate confidence, courtesy and respect for differing views during oral interaction.	The learner is guided to listen to a model dialogue, speech or recording; identify language features; practise in pairs or groups; role-play or deliver a short oral response; and give constructive feedback. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How can effective listening and speaking improve communication?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
17	3	2.0 Reading	Reading biographies and accounts of heroes and heroines	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify main ideas, supporting details and relevant vocabulary in texts related to heroes and heroines: world. Skills: read and interpret a suitable text, including reading biographies and accounts of heroes and heroines, and support responses with evidence from the text. Attitude: demonstrate curiosity, respect for authors' ideas and a positive attitude towards independent reading.	The learner is guided to preview a suitable text; read silently or aloud; infer meaning from context; identify main ideas and details; answer comprehension questions; and share interpretations.	How does reading help us understand information and ideas?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
17	4	2.0 Reading	Reading biographies and accounts of heroes and heroines	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify main ideas, supporting details and relevant vocabulary in texts related to heroes and heroines: world. Skills: read and interpret a suitable text, including reading biographies and	The learner is guided to preview a suitable text; read silently or aloud; infer meaning from context; identify main ideas and details; answer comprehension questions; and share interpretations. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or	How does reading help us understand information and ideas?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____

				accounts of heroes and heroines, and support responses with evidence from the text. Attitude: demonstrate curiosity, respect for authors' ideas and a positive attitude towards independent reading.	short independent task and reflects on progress.
17	5	3.0 Grammar in Use	Correlative conjunctions	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: explain the form and use of correlative conjunctions. Skills: identify and use correlative conjunctions accurately in meaningful spoken and written sentences. Attitude: demonstrate care and self-correction when using language.	The learner is guided to notice examples in a contextual passage; infer the language rule; classify examples; complete guided exercises; and apply the structure in original sentences.	How does accurate grammar make communication clearer?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
18	1	3.0 Grammar in Use	Correlative conjunctions	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: explain the form and use of correlative conjunctions. Skills: identify and use correlative conjunctions accurately in meaningful spoken and written sentences. Attitude: demonstrate care and self-correction when using language.	The learner is guided to notice examples in a contextual passage; infer the language rule; classify examples; complete guided exercises; and apply the structure in original sentences. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How does accurate grammar make communication clearer?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
18	2	2.0 Reading	Class reader – style	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify selected literary elements and features relevant to class reader – style. Skills: analyse a passage from the school-selected play with reference to class reader – style and support ideas with textual evidence. Attitude: appreciate literature and respect diverse interpretations and experiences.	The learner is guided to read an extract from the school-selected KICD-approved play; identify relevant literary features; discuss characters, events and ideas; cite evidence; and present a brief response.	How do literary elements help us understand a play?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
18	3	2.0 Reading	Class reader – style	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify selected literary elements and features relevant to class reader – style. Skills: analyse a passage from the school-selected play with reference to class reader – style and support ideas with textual evidence. Attitude: appreciate literature and respect diverse interpretations and experiences.	The learner is guided to read an extract from the school-selected KICD-approved play; identify relevant literary features; discuss characters, events and ideas; cite evidence; and present a brief response. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How do literary elements help us understand a play?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
18	4	4.0 Writing	Narrative composition	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: describe the purpose, audience and key features of narrative composition. Skills: plan, draft, revise and present a coherent piece of writing related to heroes and heroines: world. Attitude: demonstrate originality, neatness and responsibility in producing	The learner is guided to analyse a model text; brainstorm and organise ideas; prepare a draft; revise grammar, spelling and punctuation with peer feedback; and publish a final version.	How can writing communicate ideas clearly and effectively?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____

				written work.
18	5	4.0 Writing	Narrative composition	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: describe the purpose, audience and key features of narrative composition. Skills: plan, draft, revise and present a coherent piece of writing related to heroes and heroines: world. Attitude: demonstrate originality, neatness and responsibility in producing written work.	The learner is guided to analyse a model text; brainstorm and organise ideas; prepare a draft; revise grammar, spelling and punctuation with peer feedback; and publish a final version. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How can writing communicate ideas clearly and effectively?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
19	1	1.0 Listening and Speaking	Impromptu speeches	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify and explain key features of impromptu speeches in the context of social and mass media. Skills: apply appropriate listening and speaking strategies when discussing social and mass media. Attitude: demonstrate confidence, courtesy and respect for differing views during oral interaction.	The learner is guided to listen to a model dialogue, speech or recording; identify language features; practise in pairs or groups; role-play or deliver a short oral response; and give constructive feedback.	How can effective listening and speaking improve communication?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
19	2	1.0 Listening and Speaking	Impromptu speeches	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify and explain key features of impromptu speeches in the context of social and mass media. Skills: apply appropriate listening and speaking strategies when discussing social and mass media. Attitude: demonstrate confidence, courtesy and respect for differing views during oral interaction.	The learner is guided to listen to a model dialogue, speech or recording; identify language features; practise in pairs or groups; role-play or deliver a short oral response; and give constructive feedback. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How can effective listening and speaking improve communication?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
19	3	2.0 Reading	Reading and evaluating media messages	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify main ideas, supporting details and relevant vocabulary in texts related to social and mass media. Skills: read and interpret a suitable text, including reading and evaluating media messages, and support responses with evidence from the text. Attitude: demonstrate curiosity, respect for authors' ideas and a positive attitude towards independent reading.	The learner is guided to preview a suitable text; read silently or aloud; infer meaning from context; identify main ideas and details; answer comprehension questions; and share interpretations.	How does reading help us understand information and ideas?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
19	4	2.0 Reading	Reading and evaluating media messages	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify main ideas, supporting details and relevant vocabulary in texts related to social and mass media. Skills: read and interpret a suitable text, including reading and evaluating media messages, and support responses with evidence from the text. Attitude: demonstrate curiosity, respect for	The learner is guided to preview a suitable text; read silently or aloud; infer meaning from context; identify main ideas and details; answer comprehension questions; and share interpretations. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How does reading help us understand information and ideas?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____

				authors' ideas and a positive attitude towards independent reading.
19	5	3.0 Grammar in Use	Determiners – numerals and ordinals	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: explain the form and use of determiners – numerals and ordinals. Skills: identify and use determiners – numerals and ordinals accurately in meaningful spoken and written sentences. Attitude: demonstrate care and self-correction when using language.	The learner is guided to notice examples in a contextual passage; infer the language rule; classify examples; complete guided exercises; and apply the structure in original sentences.	How does accurate grammar make communication clearer?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
20	1	3.0 Grammar in Use	Determiners – numerals and ordinals	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: explain the form and use of determiners – numerals and ordinals. Skills: identify and use determiners – numerals and ordinals accurately in meaningful spoken and written sentences. Attitude: demonstrate care and self-correction when using language.	The learner is guided to notice examples in a contextual passage; infer the language rule; classify examples; complete guided exercises; and apply the structure in original sentences. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How does accurate grammar make communication clearer?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
20	2	2.0 Reading	Class reader – relating characters and themes to real life	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify selected literary elements and features relevant to class reader – relating characters and themes to real life. Skills: analyse a passage from the school-selected play with reference to class reader – relating characters and themes to real life and support ideas with textual evidence. Attitude: appreciate literature and respect diverse interpretations and experiences.	The learner is guided to read an extract from the school-selected KICD-approved play; identify relevant literary features; discuss characters, events and ideas; cite evidence; and present a brief response.	How do literary elements help us understand a play?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
20	3	2.0 Reading	Class reader – relating characters and themes to real life	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify selected literary elements and features relevant to class reader – relating characters and themes to real life. Skills: analyse a passage from the school-selected play with reference to class reader – relating characters and themes to real life and support ideas with textual evidence. Attitude: appreciate literature and respect diverse interpretations and experiences.	The learner is guided to read an extract from the school-selected KICD-approved play; identify relevant literary features; discuss characters, events and ideas; cite evidence; and present a brief response. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How do literary elements help us understand a play?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
20	4	4.0 Writing	Filling forms – application forms	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: describe the purpose, audience and key features of filling forms – application forms. Skills: plan, draft, revise and present a coherent piece of writing related to social and mass media. Attitude: demonstrate originality, neatness and	The learner is guided to analyse a model text; brainstorm and organise ideas; prepare a draft; revise grammar, spelling and punctuation with peer feedback; and publish a final version.	How can writing communicate ideas clearly and effectively?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____

				responsibility in producing written work.
20	5	4.0 Writing	Filling forms – application forms	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: describe the purpose, audience and key features of filling forms – application forms. Skills: plan, draft, revise and present a coherent piece of writing related to social and mass media. Attitude: demonstrate originality, neatness and responsibility in producing written work.	The learner is guided to analyse a model text; brainstorm and organise ideas; prepare a draft; revise grammar, spelling and punctuation with peer feedback; and publish a final version. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How can writing communicate ideas clearly and effectively?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____

Teacher's reflection on the term: _____

HOD/Coordinator: _____ Date: _____

TERM 3

WK	LSN	STRAND	SUB-STRAND / FOCUS	LESSON LEARNING OUTCOMES	LEARNING EXPERIENCES	KEY INQUIRY QUESTIONS	LEARNING RESOURCES	ASSESSMENT METHODS	REFLECTION
21	1	1.0 Listening and Speaking	Conversation skills – job interviews	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify and explain key features of conversation skills – job interviews in the context of income generating activities. Skills: apply appropriate listening and speaking strategies when discussing income generating activities. Attitude: demonstrate confidence, courtesy and respect for differing views during oral interaction.	The learner is guided to listen to a model dialogue, speech or recording; identify language features; practise in pairs or groups; role-play or deliver a short oral response; and give constructive feedback.	How can effective listening and speaking improve communication?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
21	2	1.0 Listening and Speaking	Conversation skills – job interviews	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify and explain key features of conversation skills – job interviews in the context of income generating activities. Skills: apply appropriate listening and speaking strategies when discussing income generating activities. Attitude: demonstrate confidence, courtesy and respect for differing views during oral interaction.	The learner is guided to listen to a model dialogue, speech or recording; identify language features; practise in pairs or groups; role-play or deliver a short oral response; and give constructive feedback. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How can effective listening and speaking improve communication?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
21	3	2.0 Reading	Reading texts on work and enterprise	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify main ideas, supporting details and relevant vocabulary in texts related to income generating activities. Skills: read and interpret a suitable text, including reading texts on work and enterprise, and support responses with evidence from the text. Attitude: demonstrate curiosity, respect for authors' ideas and a positive attitude towards independent reading.	The learner is guided to preview a suitable text; read silently or aloud; infer meaning from context; identify main ideas and details; answer comprehension questions; and share interpretations.	How does reading help us understand information and ideas?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
21	4	2.0 Reading	Reading texts on work	At the end of the lesson,	The learner is guided to	How does reading help	KICD-approved Grade 9	Oral performance,	_____ and enterprise	the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify main ideas, supporting details and relevant vocabulary in texts related to income generating activities. Skills: read and interpret a suitable text, including reading texts on work and enterprise, and support responses with evidence from the text. Attitude: demonstrate curiosity, respect for authors' ideas and a positive attitude towards independent reading.	preview a suitable text; read silently or aloud; infer meaning from context; identify main ideas and details; answer comprehension questions; and share interpretations. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	us understand information and ideas?	English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.

21	5	3.0 Grammar in Use	Nouns	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: explain the form and use of nouns. Skills: identify and use nouns accurately in meaningful spoken and written sentences. Attitude: demonstrate care and self-correction when using language.	The learner is guided to notice examples in a contextual passage; infer the language rule; classify examples; complete guided exercises; and apply the structure in original sentences.	How does accurate grammar make communication clearer?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
22	1	3.0 Grammar in Use	Nouns	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: explain the form and use of nouns. Skills: identify and use nouns accurately in meaningful spoken and written sentences. Attitude: demonstrate care and self-correction when using language.	The learner is guided to notice examples in a contextual passage; infer the language rule; classify examples; complete guided exercises; and apply the structure in original sentences. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How does accurate grammar make communication clearer?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
22	2	2.0 Reading	Class reader – characterisation	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify selected literary elements and features relevant to class reader – characterisation. Skills: analyse a passage from the school-selected play with reference to class reader – characterisation and support ideas with textual evidence. Attitude: appreciate literature and respect diverse interpretations and experiences.	The learner is guided to read an extract from the school-selected KICD-approved play; identify relevant literary features; discuss characters, events and ideas; cite evidence; and present a brief response.	How do literary elements help us understand a play?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
22	3	2.0 Reading	Class reader – characterisation	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify selected literary elements and features relevant to class reader – characterisation. Skills: analyse a passage from the school-selected play with reference to class reader – characterisation and support ideas with textual evidence. Attitude: appreciate literature and respect diverse interpretations and experiences.	The learner is guided to read an extract from the school-selected KICD-approved play; identify relevant literary features; discuss characters, events and ideas; cite evidence; and present a brief response. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How do literary elements help us understand a play?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
22	4	4.0 Writing	Mechanics of writing – abbreviations and acronyms	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: describe the purpose, audience and	The learner is guided to analyse a model text; brainstorm and organise ideas; prepare a draft; revise grammar, spelling	How can writing communicate ideas clearly and effectively?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts;	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product,	_____

				key features of mechanics of writing – abbreviations and acronyms. Skills: plan, draft, revise and present a coherent piece of writing related to income generating activities. Attitude: demonstrate originality, neatness and responsibility in producing written work.	and punctuation with peer feedback; and publish a final version.		audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.
22	5	4.0 Writing	Mechanics of writing – abbreviations and acronyms	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: describe the purpose, audience and key features of mechanics of writing – abbreviations and acronyms. Skills: plan, draft, revise and present a coherent piece of writing related to income generating activities. Attitude: demonstrate originality, neatness and responsibility in producing written work.	The learner is guided to analyse a model text; brainstorm and organise ideas; prepare a draft; revise grammar, spelling and punctuation with peer feedback; and publish a final version. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How can writing communicate ideas clearly and effectively?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
23	1	1.0 Listening and Speaking	Listening to respond – expressing feelings	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify and explain key features of listening to respond – expressing feelings in the context of personal grooming. Skills: apply appropriate listening and speaking strategies when discussing personal grooming. Attitude: demonstrate confidence, courtesy and respect for differing views during oral interaction.	The learner is guided to listen to a model dialogue, speech or recording; identify language features; practise in pairs or groups; role-play or deliver a short oral response; and give constructive feedback.	How can effective listening and speaking improve communication?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
23	2	1.0 Listening and Speaking	Listening to respond – expressing feelings	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify and explain key features of listening to respond – expressing feelings in the context of personal grooming. Skills: apply appropriate listening and speaking strategies when discussing personal grooming. Attitude: demonstrate confidence, courtesy and respect for differing views during oral interaction.	The learner is guided to listen to a model dialogue, speech or recording; identify language features; practise in pairs or groups; role-play or deliver a short oral response; and give constructive feedback. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How can effective listening and speaking improve communication?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
23	3	2.0 Reading	Reading texts on personal care and self-presentation	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify main ideas, supporting details and relevant vocabulary in texts related to personal grooming. Skills: read and interpret a suitable text, including reading texts on personal care and self-presentation, and support responses with evidence from the text. Attitude: demonstrate curiosity, respect for authors' ideas and a positive attitude towards	The learner is guided to preview a suitable text; read silently or aloud; infer meaning from context; identify main ideas and details; answer comprehension questions; and share interpretations.	How does reading help us understand information and ideas?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____

				independent reading.
23	4	2.0 Reading	Reading texts on personal care and self-presentation	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify main ideas, supporting details and relevant vocabulary in texts related to personal grooming. Skills: read and interpret a suitable text, including reading texts on personal care and self-presentation, and support responses with evidence from the text. Attitude: demonstrate curiosity, respect for authors' ideas and a positive attitude towards independent reading.	The learner is guided to preview a suitable text; read silently or aloud; infer meaning from context; identify main ideas and details; answer comprehension questions; and share interpretations. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How does reading help us understand information and ideas?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
23	5	3.0 Grammar in Use	Phrasal verbs	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: explain the form and use of phrasal verbs. Skills: identify and use phrasal verbs accurately in meaningful spoken and written sentences. Attitude: demonstrate care and self-correction when using language.	The learner is guided to notice examples in a contextual passage; infer the language rule; classify examples; complete guided exercises; and apply the structure in original sentences.	How does accurate grammar make communication clearer?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
24	1	3.0 Grammar in Use	Phrasal verbs	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: explain the form and use of phrasal verbs. Skills: identify and use phrasal verbs accurately in meaningful spoken and written sentences. Attitude: demonstrate care and self-correction when using language.	The learner is guided to notice examples in a contextual passage; infer the language rule; classify examples; complete guided exercises; and apply the structure in original sentences. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How does accurate grammar make communication clearer?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
24	2	2.0 Reading	Class reader – style	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify selected literary elements and features relevant to class reader – style. Skills: analyse a passage from the school-selected play with reference to class reader – style and support ideas with textual evidence. Attitude: appreciate literature and respect diverse interpretations and experiences.	The learner is guided to read an extract from the school-selected KICD-approved play; identify relevant literary features; discuss characters, events and ideas; cite evidence; and present a brief response.	How do literary elements help us understand a play?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
24	3	2.0 Reading	Class reader – style	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify selected literary elements and features relevant to class reader – style. Skills: analyse a passage from the school-selected play with reference to class reader – style and support ideas with textual evidence. Attitude: appreciate literature and respect diverse interpretations and experiences.	The learner is guided to read an extract from the school-selected KICD-approved play; identify relevant literary features; discuss characters, events and ideas; cite evidence; and present a brief response. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How do literary elements help us understand a play?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
24	4	4.0 Writing	The writing process	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: describe the purpose, audience and	The learner is guided to analyse a model text; brainstorm and organise ideas; prepare a draft; revise grammar, spelling	How can writing communicate ideas clearly and effectively?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts;	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product,	_____

				key features of the writing process. Skills: plan, draft, revise and present a coherent piece of writing related to personal grooming. Attitude: demonstrate originality, neatness and responsibility in producing written work.	and punctuation with peer feedback; and publish a final version.		audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.
24	5	4.0 Writing	The writing process	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: describe the purpose, audience and key features of the writing process. Skills: plan, draft, revise and present a coherent piece of writing related to personal grooming. Attitude: demonstrate originality, neatness and responsibility in producing written work.	The learner is guided to analyse a model text; brainstorm and organise ideas; prepare a draft; revise grammar, spelling and punctuation with peer feedback; and publish a final version. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How can writing communicate ideas clearly and effectively?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
25	1	1.0 Listening and Speaking	Extensive listening – speeches	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify and explain key features of extensive listening – speeches in the context of sea travel. Skills: apply appropriate listening and speaking strategies when discussing sea travel. Attitude: demonstrate confidence, courtesy and respect for differing views during oral interaction.	The learner is guided to listen to a model dialogue, speech or recording; identify language features; practise in pairs or groups; role-play or deliver a short oral response; and give constructive feedback.	How can effective listening and speaking improve communication?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
25	2	1.0 Listening and Speaking	Extensive listening – speeches	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify and explain key features of extensive listening – speeches in the context of sea travel. Skills: apply appropriate listening and speaking strategies when discussing sea travel. Attitude: demonstrate confidence, courtesy and respect for differing views during oral interaction.	The learner is guided to listen to a model dialogue, speech or recording; identify language features; practise in pairs or groups; role-play or deliver a short oral response; and give constructive feedback. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How can effective listening and speaking improve communication?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
25	3	2.0 Reading	Reading informational texts on sea travel	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify main ideas, supporting details and relevant vocabulary in texts related to sea travel. Skills: read and interpret a suitable text, including reading informational texts on sea travel, and support responses with evidence from the text. Attitude: demonstrate curiosity, respect for authors' ideas and a positive attitude towards independent reading.	The learner is guided to preview a suitable text; read silently or aloud; infer meaning from context; identify main ideas and details; answer comprehension questions; and share interpretations.	How does reading help us understand information and ideas?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
25	4	2.0 Reading	Reading informational texts on sea travel	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify main ideas, supporting details and relevant vocabulary in texts related to sea travel. Skills: read and interpret a suitable text, including	The learner is guided to preview a suitable text; read silently or aloud; infer meaning from context; identify main ideas and details; answer comprehension questions; and share interpretations. The learner then applies the	How does reading help us understand information and ideas?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____

				reading informational texts on sea travel, and support responses with evidence from the text. Attitude: demonstrate curiosity, respect for authors' ideas and a positive attitude towards independent reading.	skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.
25	5	3.0 Grammar in Use	Complex sentences	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: explain the form and use of complex sentences. Skills: identify and use complex sentences accurately in meaningful spoken and written sentences. Attitude: demonstrate care and self-correction when using language.	The learner is guided to notice examples in a contextual passage; infer the language rule; classify examples; complete guided exercises; and apply the structure in original sentences.	How does accurate grammar make communication clearer?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
26	1	3.0 Grammar in Use	Complex sentences	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: explain the form and use of complex sentences. Skills: identify and use complex sentences accurately in meaningful spoken and written sentences. Attitude: demonstrate care and self-correction when using language.	The learner is guided to notice examples in a contextual passage; infer the language rule; classify examples; complete guided exercises; and apply the structure in original sentences. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How does accurate grammar make communication clearer?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
26	2	2.0 Reading	Class reader – relating characters and themes to real life	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify selected literary elements and features relevant to class reader – relating characters and themes to real life. Skills: analyse a passage from the school-selected play with reference to class reader – relating characters and themes to real life and support ideas with textual evidence. Attitude: appreciate literature and respect diverse interpretations and experiences.	The learner is guided to read an extract from the school-selected KICD-approved play; identify relevant literary features; discuss characters, events and ideas; cite evidence; and present a brief response.	How do literary elements help us understand a play?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
26	3	2.0 Reading	Class reader – relating characters and themes to real life	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify selected literary elements and features relevant to class reader – relating characters and themes to real life. Skills: analyse a passage from the school-selected play with reference to class reader – relating characters and themes to real life and support ideas with textual evidence. Attitude: appreciate literature and respect diverse interpretations and experiences.	The learner is guided to read an extract from the school-selected KICD-approved play; identify relevant literary features; discuss characters, events and ideas; cite evidence; and present a brief response. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How do literary elements help us understand a play?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
26	4	4.0 Writing	Creative writing – idioms	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: describe the purpose, audience and key features of creative writing – idioms. Skills: plan, draft, revise and present a coherent	The learner is guided to analyse a model text; brainstorm and organise ideas; prepare a draft; revise grammar, spelling and punctuation with peer feedback; and publish a final version.	How can writing communicate ideas clearly and effectively?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____

				piece of writing related to sea travel. Attitude: demonstrate originality, neatness and responsibility in producing written work.
26	5	4.0 Writing	Creative writing – idioms	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: describe the purpose, audience and key features of creative writing – idioms. Skills: plan, draft, revise and present a coherent piece of writing related to sea travel. Attitude: demonstrate originality, neatness and responsibility in producing written work.	The learner is guided to analyse a model text; brainstorm and organise ideas; prepare a draft; revise grammar, spelling and punctuation with peer feedback; and publish a final version. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How can writing communicate ideas clearly and effectively?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
27	1	1.0 Listening and Speaking	Intonation in sentences – question tags	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify and explain key features of intonation in sentences – question tags in the context of sports: world cup (football). Skills: apply appropriate listening and speaking strategies when discussing sports: world cup (football). Attitude: demonstrate confidence, courtesy and respect for differing views during oral interaction.	The learner is guided to listen to a model dialogue, speech or recording; identify language features; practise in pairs or groups; role-play or deliver a short oral response; and give constructive feedback.	How can effective listening and speaking improve communication?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
27	2	1.0 Listening and Speaking	Intonation in sentences – question tags	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify and explain key features of intonation in sentences – question tags in the context of sports: world cup (football). Skills: apply appropriate listening and speaking strategies when discussing sports: world cup (football). Attitude: demonstrate confidence, courtesy and respect for differing views during oral interaction.	The learner is guided to listen to a model dialogue, speech or recording; identify language features; practise in pairs or groups; role-play or deliver a short oral response; and give constructive feedback. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How can effective listening and speaking improve communication?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
27	3	2.0 Reading	Reading sports reports and profiles	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify main ideas, supporting details and relevant vocabulary in texts related to sports: world cup (football). Skills: read and interpret a suitable text, including reading sports reports and profiles, and support responses with evidence from the text. Attitude: demonstrate curiosity, respect for authors' ideas and a positive attitude towards independent reading.	The learner is guided to preview a suitable text; read silently or aloud; infer meaning from context; identify main ideas and details; answer comprehension questions; and share interpretations.	How does reading help us understand information and ideas?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
27	4	2.0 Reading	Reading sports reports and profiles	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify main ideas, supporting details and relevant vocabulary in texts related to sports: world cup (football). Skills: read and interpret a suitable text, including	The learner is guided to preview a suitable text; read silently or aloud; infer meaning from context; identify main ideas and details; answer comprehension questions; and share interpretations. The learner then applies the	How does reading help us understand information and ideas?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____

				reading sports reports and profiles, and support responses with evidence from the text. Attitude: demonstrate curiosity, respect for authors' ideas and a positive attitude towards independent reading.	skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.
27	5	3.0 Grammar in Use	Direct and indirect speech	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: explain the form and use of direct and indirect speech. Skills: identify and use direct and indirect speech accurately in meaningful spoken and written sentences. Attitude: demonstrate care and self-correction when using language.	The learner is guided to notice examples in a contextual passage; infer the language rule; classify examples; complete guided exercises; and apply the structure in original sentences.	How does accurate grammar make communication clearer?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
28	1	3.0 Grammar in Use	Direct and indirect speech	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: explain the form and use of direct and indirect speech. Skills: identify and use direct and indirect speech accurately in meaningful spoken and written sentences. Attitude: demonstrate care and self-correction when using language.	The learner is guided to notice examples in a contextual passage; infer the language rule; classify examples; complete guided exercises; and apply the structure in original sentences. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How does accurate grammar make communication clearer?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
28	2	2.0 Reading	Class reader – intensive reading of poems	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify selected literary elements and features relevant to class reader – intensive reading of poems. Skills: analyse a passage from the school-selected play with reference to class reader – intensive reading of poems and support ideas with textual evidence. Attitude: appreciate literature and respect diverse interpretations and experiences.	The learner is guided to read an extract from the school-selected KICD-approved play; identify relevant literary features; discuss characters, events and ideas; cite evidence; and present a brief response.	How do literary elements help us understand a play?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
28	3	2.0 Reading	Class reader – intensive reading of poems	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify selected literary elements and features relevant to class reader – intensive reading of poems. Skills: analyse a passage from the school-selected play with reference to class reader – intensive reading of poems and support ideas with textual evidence. Attitude: appreciate literature and respect diverse interpretations and experiences.	The learner is guided to read an extract from the school-selected KICD-approved play; identify relevant literary features; discuss characters, events and ideas; cite evidence; and present a brief response. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How do literary elements help us understand a play?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
28	4	4.0 Writing	Descriptive writing	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: describe the purpose, audience and key features of descriptive writing. Skills: plan, draft, revise and present a coherent piece of writing related to sports: world cup	The learner is guided to analyse a model text; brainstorm and organise ideas; prepare a draft; revise grammar, spelling and punctuation with peer feedback; and publish a final version.	How can writing communicate ideas clearly and effectively?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____

				(football). Attitude: demonstrate originality, neatness and responsibility in producing written work.
28	5	4.0 Writing	Descriptive writing	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: describe the purpose, audience and key features of descriptive writing. Skills: plan, draft, revise and present a coherent piece of writing related to sports: world cup (football). Attitude: demonstrate originality, neatness and responsibility in producing written work.	The learner is guided to analyse a model text; brainstorm and organise ideas; prepare a draft; revise grammar, spelling and punctuation with peer feedback; and publish a final version. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How can writing communicate ideas clearly and effectively?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
29	1	1.0 Listening and Speaking	Oral reports – news (role play)	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify and explain key features of oral reports – news (role play) in the context of tourist attraction sites: world. Skills: apply appropriate listening and speaking strategies when discussing tourist attraction sites: world. Attitude: demonstrate confidence, courtesy and respect for differing views during oral interaction.	The learner is guided to listen to a model dialogue, speech or recording; identify language features; practise in pairs or groups; role-play or deliver a short oral response; and give constructive feedback.	How can effective listening and speaking improve communication?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
29	2	1.0 Listening and Speaking	Oral reports – news (role play)	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify and explain key features of oral reports – news (role play) in the context of tourist attraction sites: world. Skills: apply appropriate listening and speaking strategies when discussing tourist attraction sites: world. Attitude: demonstrate confidence, courtesy and respect for differing views during oral interaction.	The learner is guided to listen to a model dialogue, speech or recording; identify language features; practise in pairs or groups; role-play or deliver a short oral response; and give constructive feedback. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How can effective listening and speaking improve communication?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
29	3	2.0 Reading	Reading texts about world tourist attractions	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify main ideas, supporting details and relevant vocabulary in texts related to tourist attraction sites: world. Skills: read and interpret a suitable text, including reading texts about world tourist attractions, and support responses with evidence from the text. Attitude: demonstrate curiosity, respect for authors' ideas and a positive attitude towards independent reading.	The learner is guided to preview a suitable text; read silently or aloud; infer meaning from context; identify main ideas and details; answer comprehension questions; and share interpretations.	How does reading help us understand information and ideas?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
29	4	2.0 Reading	Reading texts about world tourist attractions	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify main ideas, supporting details and relevant vocabulary in texts related to tourist attraction sites: world. Skills: read and interpret a suitable text, including	The learner is guided to preview a suitable text; read silently or aloud; infer meaning from context; identify main ideas and details; answer comprehension questions; and share interpretations. The learner then applies the	How does reading help us understand information and ideas?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____

				reading texts about world tourist attractions, and support responses with evidence from the text. Attitude: demonstrate curiosity, respect for authors' ideas and a positive attitude towards independent reading.	skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.
29	5	3.0 Grammar in Use	Imperatives and exclamatory sentences	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: explain the form and use of imperatives and exclamatory sentences. Skills: identify and use imperatives and exclamatory sentences accurately in meaningful spoken and written sentences. Attitude: demonstrate care and self-correction when using language.	The learner is guided to notice examples in a contextual passage; infer the language rule; classify examples; complete guided exercises; and apply the structure in original sentences.	How does accurate grammar make communication clearer?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
30	1	3.0 Grammar in Use	Imperatives and exclamatory sentences	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: explain the form and use of imperatives and exclamatory sentences. Skills: identify and use imperatives and exclamatory sentences accurately in meaningful spoken and written sentences. Attitude: demonstrate care and self-correction when using language.	The learner is guided to notice examples in a contextual passage; infer the language rule; classify examples; complete guided exercises; and apply the structure in original sentences. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How does accurate grammar make communication clearer?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
30	2	2.0 Reading	Class reader – intensive reading of poems	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify selected literary elements and features relevant to class reader – intensive reading of poems. Skills: analyse a passage from the school-selected play with reference to class reader – intensive reading of poems and support ideas with textual evidence. Attitude: appreciate literature and respect diverse interpretations and experiences.	The learner is guided to read an extract from the school-selected KICD-approved play; identify relevant literary features; discuss characters, events and ideas; cite evidence; and present a brief response.	How do literary elements help us understand a play?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
30	3	2.0 Reading	Class reader – intensive reading of poems	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: identify selected literary elements and features relevant to class reader – intensive reading of poems. Skills: analyse a passage from the school-selected play with reference to class reader – intensive reading of poems and support ideas with textual evidence. Attitude: appreciate literature and respect diverse interpretations and experiences.	The learner is guided to read an extract from the school-selected KICD-approved play; identify relevant literary features; discuss characters, events and ideas; cite evidence; and present a brief response. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How do literary elements help us understand a play?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____
30	4	4.0 Writing	Emails	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: describe the purpose, audience and key features of emails. Skills: plan, draft, revise	The learner is guided to analyse a model text; brainstorm and organise ideas; prepare a draft; revise grammar, spelling and punctuation with peer feedback; and publish a	How can writing communicate ideas clearly and effectively?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as	_____

				and present a coherent piece of writing related to tourist attraction sites: world. Attitude: demonstrate originality, neatness and responsibility in producing written work.	final version.		digital texts.	appropriate.
30	5	4.0 Writing	Emails	At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to: Knowledge: describe the purpose, audience and key features of emails. Skills: plan, draft, revise and present a coherent piece of writing related to tourist attraction sites: world. Attitude: demonstrate originality, neatness and responsibility in producing written work.	The learner is guided to analyse a model text; brainstorm and organise ideas; prepare a draft; revise grammar, spelling and punctuation with peer feedback; and publish a final version. The learner then applies the skill in a new example or short independent task and reflects on progress.	How can writing communicate ideas clearly and effectively?	KICD-approved Grade 9 English learner's book; school-selected KICD-approved play; dictionaries; charts; audio/video resources; worksheets; library and digital texts.	Oral performance, reading record, comprehension questions, grammar exercise, written product, observation rubric and peer/self-assessment as appropriate.	_____

Teacher's reflection on the term: _____

HOD/Coordinator: _____ Date: _____

Curriculum coverage and source note

The 15 themes used in this plan are: Citizenship; Science: Fiction; Environmental Conservation; Consumer Protection: Consumer Laws and Policies; Relationships: Community; Leisure Time; Natural Resources: Marine Life; Tourism: International; Heroes and Heroines: World; Social and Mass Media; Income Generating Activities; Personal Grooming; Sea Travel; Sports: World Cup (Football); and Tourist Attraction Sites: World.

The Grade 9 English design summary allocates 30 lessons to Listening and Speaking, 60 to Reading (including class-reader work), 30 to Grammar in Use and 30 to Writing, totalling 150 lessons. The detailed sub-strand/focus sequence in this scheme has been adapted into a practical theme-by-theme planning matrix; consult the complete current KICD design for the exact lesson-level wording and sequence.

Official KICD Grade Nine Designs portal: https://kicd.ac.ke/cbc-materials/curriculum-designs/grade-nine-designs/

Additional curriculum summary reference used to cross-check the theme and sub-strand sequence: https://www.studocu.com/row/document/mount-kenya-university/research-proposal-writing-skills/english-grade-9-revised-oct/115613550?origin=quiz-page

This is an original teacher-prepared planning document, not an official KICD publication. Use the KICD-approved learner's book and the play selected by the school; do not treat the class reader as a nationally fixed set text.