GRADE 8 ENGLISH — TERM 1 — 2027

School: _____ Teacher: _____ TSC No.: _____

Grade: 8 Year: 2027 Term: 1 Week: 1 Lesson: 1

Date: _____ Time: _____ Roll: _____

LEARNING AREA: English

STRAND: Listening and Speaking SUB-STRAND / FOCUS: 1.1.1 Polite Language (telephone etiquette)

LESSON LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to:
Knowledge: Explain or identify the key concept in 1.1.1 polite language (telephone etiquette) within the theme of human rights.
Skills: identify polite telephone expressions and conduct a courteous telephone conversation.
Attitudes: demonstrate confidence, respect, responsibility, cooperation and appreciation of effective communication.

KEY INQUIRY QUESTION

Why should one be polite when speaking over the telephone?

LEARNING RESOURCES

KICD-approved Grade 8 English learner's book; approved short-story anthology; dictionaries; thesaurus; charts; audio recordings; digital texts; worksheets; locally available materials.

ORGANISATION OF LEARNING

Learners work individually, in pairs and in small groups. The teacher facilitates inclusive participation, provides differentiated support and extension, and observes learner progress.

INTRODUCTION (5 minutes)

The teacher introduces the theme of Human Rights using a short question, picture, object, audio clip or brief text. Learners share prior knowledge and connect it to the key inquiry question.

LESSON DEVELOPMENT

Activity 1 — Model and explore: The teacher models the relevant language skill using an example linked to human rights, equality, dignity, responsibilities and respectful participation. Learners listen, read or observe and identify key features.

Activity 2 — Guided practice: Listen to model calls; identify polite phrases; role-play calls and message taking. The teacher prompts learners to use appropriate vocabulary and strategies.

Activity 3 — Independent application: Learners complete an individual task related to 1.1.1 Polite Language (telephone etiquette), then check their work against the success criteria. Learners requiring support use sentence starters, word banks or a worked example; extension learners create a more complex response.

Activity 4 — Sharing and feedback: Selected learners present responses. Peers give constructive feedback on accuracy, clarity and relevance. The teacher addresses misconceptions and reinforces the lesson focus.

ASSESSMENT

Oral questions; observation checklist; learner participation; reading or speaking performance; written exercise or product; peer/self-assessment, as appropriate to the skill.

CONCLUSION (5 minutes)

Learners summarise what they learned and answer: Why should one be polite when speaking over the telephone? The teacher gives a short follow-up task linked to the theme.

Why should we pay attention to details?

LEARNING RESOURCES

KICD-approved Grade 8 English learner's book; approved short-story anthology; dictionaries; thesaurus; charts; audio recordings; digital texts; worksheets; locally available materials.

ORGANISATION OF LEARNING

Learners work individually, in pairs and in small groups. The teacher facilitates inclusive participation, provides differentiated support and extension, and observes learner progress.

INTRODUCTION (5 minutes)

The teacher introduces the theme of Scientific Innovations using a short question, picture, object, audio clip or brief text. Learners share prior knowledge and connect it to the key inquiry question.

LESSON DEVELOPMENT

Activity 1 — Model and explore: The teacher models the relevant language skill using an example linked to scientific discoveries, inventions, technology and their effects on society. Learners listen, read or observe and identify key features.

Activity 2 — Guided practice: Listen to short accounts; note details; respond to questions and prompts. The teacher prompts learners to use appropriate vocabulary and strategies.

Activity 3 — Independent application: Learners complete an individual task related to 7.1.1 Listening for details – responding appropriately, then check their work against the success criteria. Learners requiring support use sentence starters, word banks or a worked example; extension learners create a more complex response.

Activity 4 — Sharing and feedback: Selected learners present responses. Peers give constructive feedback on accuracy, clarity and relevance. The teacher addresses misconceptions and reinforces the lesson focus.

ASSESSMENT

Oral questions; observation checklist; learner participation; reading or speaking performance; written exercise or product; peer/self-assessment, as appropriate to the skill.

CONCLUSION (5 minutes)

Learners summarise what they learned and answer: Why should we pay attention to details? The teacher gives a short follow-up task linked to the theme.

LESSON DEVELOPMENT

Activity 1 — Model and explore: The teacher models the relevant language skill using an example linked to causes, effects, prevention and control of pollution. Learners listen, read or observe and identify key features.

Activity 2 — Guided practice: Listen to a poem more than once; identify message, mood and selected language features. The teacher prompts learners to use appropriate vocabulary and strategies.

Activity 3 — Independent application: Learners complete an individual task related to 13.1.1 Extensive Listening – poems, then check their work against the success criteria. Learners requiring support use sentence starters, word banks or a worked example; extension learners create a more complex response.

Activity 4 — Sharing and feedback: Selected learners present responses. Peers give constructive feedback on accuracy, clarity and relevance. The teacher addresses misconceptions and reinforces the lesson focus.

ASSESSMENT

Oral questions; observation checklist; learner participation; reading or speaking performance; written exercise or product; peer/self-assessment, as appropriate to the skill.

CONCLUSION (5 minutes)

Learners summarise what they learned and answer: What can we learn by listening to poems? The teacher gives a short follow-up task linked to the theme.

GRADE 8 ENGLISH — TERM 1 — 2027

School: _____ Teacher: _____ TSC No.: _____

Grade: 8 Year: 2027 Term: 1 Week: 10 Lesson: 5

Date: _____ Time: _____ Roll: _____

LEARNING AREA: English

STRAND: Reading SUB-STRAND / FOCUS: 10.2.1 Study skills – Note Making

LESSON LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to:
Knowledge: Explain or identify the key concept in 10.2.1 study skills – note making within the theme of relationships: peers.
Skills: identify key points and make useful notes from a text and apply the skill independently in a fresh context.
Attitudes: demonstrate confidence, respect, responsibility, cooperation and appreciation of effective communication.

KEY INQUIRY QUESTION

What makes notes useful?

LEARNING RESOURCES

KICD-approved Grade 8 English learner's book; approved short-story anthology; dictionaries; thesaurus; charts; audio recordings; digital texts; worksheets; locally available materials.

ORGANISATION OF LEARNING

Learners work individually, in pairs and in small groups. The teacher facilitates inclusive participation, provides differentiated support and extension, and observes learner progress.

INTRODUCTION (5 minutes)

The teacher introduces the theme of Relationships: Peers using a short question, picture, object, audio clip or brief text. Learners share prior knowledge and connect it to the key inquiry question.

LESSON DEVELOPMENT

Activity 1 — Model and explore: The teacher models the relevant language skill using an example linked to friendship, peer influence, cooperation and respectful relationships. Learners listen, read or observe and identify key features.

Activity 2 — Guided practice: Read a theme-related text; identify key points; use headings, abbreviations and paraphrase. The teacher prompts learners to use appropriate vocabulary and strategies.

Activity 3 — Independent application: Learners complete an individual task related to 10.2.1 Study skills – Note Making, then check their work against the success criteria. Learners requiring support use sentence starters, word banks or a worked example; extension learners create a more complex response.

Activity 4 — Sharing and feedback: Selected learners present responses. Peers give constructive feedback on accuracy, clarity and relevance. The teacher addresses misconceptions and reinforces the lesson focus.

ASSESSMENT

Oral questions; observation checklist; learner participation; reading or speaking performance; written exercise or product; peer/self-assessment, as appropriate to the skill.

CONCLUSION (5 minutes)

Learners summarise what they learned and answer: What makes notes useful? The teacher gives a short follow-up task linked to the theme.

At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to:
Knowledge: Explain or identify the key concept in 1.4.1 intensive reading – class reader – sequencing events within the theme of natural resources: wildlife.
Skills: sequence events in a short-story anthology text and apply the skill independently in a fresh context.
Attitudes: demonstrate confidence, respect, responsibility, cooperation and appreciation of effective communication.

KEY INQUIRY QUESTION

Why is sequence important in a story?

LEARNING RESOURCES

KICD-approved Grade 8 English learner's book; approved short-story anthology; dictionaries; thesaurus; charts; audio recordings; digital texts; worksheets; locally available materials.

ORGANISATION OF LEARNING

Learners work individually, in pairs and in small groups. The teacher facilitates inclusive participation, provides differentiated support and extension, and observes learner progress.

INTRODUCTION (5 minutes)

The teacher introduces the theme of Natural Resources: Wildlife using a short question, picture, object, audio clip or brief text. Learners share prior knowledge and connect it to the key inquiry question.

LESSON DEVELOPMENT

Activity 1 — Model and explore: The teacher models the relevant language skill using an example linked to wildlife, conservation, habitats and responsible use of natural resources. Learners listen, read or observe and identify key features.

Activity 2 — Guided practice: Read a selected approved story; identify events; arrange them in chronological order. The teacher prompts learners to use appropriate vocabulary and strategies.

Activity 3 — Independent application: Learners complete an individual task related to 1.4.1 Intensive reading – class reader – sequencing events, then check their work against the success criteria. Learners requiring support use sentence starters, word banks or a worked example; extension learners create a more complex response.

Activity 4 — Sharing and feedback: Selected learners present responses. Peers give constructive feedback on accuracy, clarity and relevance. The teacher addresses misconceptions and reinforces the lesson focus.

ASSESSMENT

Oral questions; observation checklist; learner participation; reading or speaking performance; written exercise or product; peer/self-assessment, as appropriate to the skill.

CONCLUSION (5 minutes)

Learners summarise what they learned and answer: Why is sequence important in a story? The teacher gives a short follow-up task linked to the theme.

Attitudes: demonstrate confidence, respect, responsibility, cooperation and appreciation of effective communication.

KEY INQUIRY QUESTION

How do relationships shape events?

LEARNING RESOURCES

KICD-approved Grade 8 English learner's book; approved short-story anthology; dictionaries; thesaurus; charts; audio recordings; digital texts; worksheets; locally available materials.

ORGANISATION OF LEARNING

Learners work individually, in pairs and in small groups. The teacher facilitates inclusive participation, provides differentiated support and extension, and observes learner progress.

INTRODUCTION (5 minutes)

The teacher introduces the theme of Tourism: Domestic using a short question, picture, object, audio clip or brief text. Learners share prior knowledge and connect it to the key inquiry question.

LESSON DEVELOPMENT

Activity 1 — Model and explore: The teacher models the relevant language skill using an example linked to domestic tourism, travel experiences and Kenya's attractions. Learners listen, read or observe and identify key features.

Activity 2 — Guided practice: Identify interactions and dialogue; infer relationships; support explanations from the story. The teacher prompts learners to use appropriate vocabulary and strategies.

Activity 3 — Independent application: Learners complete an individual task related to 7.4.1 Class Reader – relationship between characters, then check their work against the success criteria. Learners requiring support use sentence starters, word banks or a worked example; extension learners create a more complex response.

Activity 4 — Sharing and feedback: Selected learners present responses. Peers give constructive feedback on accuracy, clarity and relevance. The teacher addresses misconceptions and reinforces the lesson focus.

ASSESSMENT

Oral questions; observation checklist; learner participation; reading or speaking performance; written exercise or product; peer/self-assessment, as appropriate to the skill.

CONCLUSION (5 minutes)

Learners summarise what they learned and answer: How do relationships shape events? The teacher gives a short follow-up task linked to the theme.

Attitudes: demonstrate confidence, respect, responsibility, cooperation and appreciation of effective communication.

KEY INQUIRY QUESTION

How do writers use personification and flashback?

LEARNING RESOURCES

KICD-approved Grade 8 English learner's book; approved short-story anthology; dictionaries; thesaurus; charts; audio recordings; digital texts; worksheets; locally available materials.

ORGANISATION OF LEARNING

Learners work individually, in pairs and in small groups. The teacher facilitates inclusive participation, provides differentiated support and extension, and observes learner progress.

INTRODUCTION (5 minutes)

The teacher introduces the theme of Heroes and Heroines: Africa using a short question, picture, object, audio clip or brief text. Learners share prior knowledge and connect it to the key inquiry question.

LESSON DEVELOPMENT

Activity 1 — Model and explore: The teacher models the relevant language skill using an example linked to African heroes and heroines, achievements and positive values. Learners listen, read or observe and identify key features.

Activity 2 — Guided practice: Locate examples; explain effects; discuss how these features shape the story. The teacher prompts learners to use appropriate vocabulary and strategies.

Activity 3 — Independent application: Learners complete an individual task related to 13.4.1 Class reader – style (personification, flashback), then check their work against the success criteria. Learners requiring support use sentence starters, word banks or a worked example; extension learners create a more complex response.

Activity 4 — Sharing and feedback: Selected learners present responses. Peers give constructive feedback on accuracy, clarity and relevance. The teacher addresses misconceptions and reinforces the lesson focus.

ASSESSMENT

Oral questions; observation checklist; learner participation; reading or speaking performance; written exercise or product; peer/self-assessment, as appropriate to the skill.

CONCLUSION (5 minutes)

Learners summarise what they learned and answer: How do writers use personification and flashback? The teacher gives a short follow-up task linked to the theme.

The teacher introduces the theme of Art using a short question, picture, object, audio clip or brief text. Learners share prior knowledge and connect it to the key inquiry question.

LESSON DEVELOPMENT

Activity 1 — Model and explore: The teacher models the relevant language skill using an example linked to visual and performing arts, creativity and appreciation. Learners listen, read or observe and identify key features.

Activity 2 — Guided practice: Identify verbs and tense forms; transform sentences; write about theme-related events. The teacher prompts learners to use appropriate vocabulary and strategies.

Activity 3 — Independent application: Learners complete an individual task related to 4.3.1 Verbs and Tenses, then check their work against the success criteria. Learners requiring support use sentence starters, word banks or a worked example; extension learners create a more complex response.

Activity 4 — Sharing and feedback: Selected learners present responses. Peers give constructive feedback on accuracy, clarity and relevance. The teacher addresses misconceptions and reinforces the lesson focus.

ASSESSMENT

Oral questions; observation checklist; learner participation; reading or speaking performance; written exercise or product; peer/self-assessment, as appropriate to the skill.

CONCLUSION (5 minutes)

Learners summarise what they learned and answer: How do tenses show time? The teacher gives a short follow-up task linked to the theme.

Attitudes: demonstrate confidence, respect, responsibility, cooperation and appreciation of effective communication.

KEY INQUIRY QUESTION

How does punctuation guide readers?

LEARNING RESOURCES

KICD-approved Grade 8 English learner's book; approved short-story anthology; dictionaries; thesaurus; charts; audio recordings; digital texts; worksheets; locally available materials.

ORGANISATION OF LEARNING

Learners work individually, in pairs and in small groups. The teacher facilitates inclusive participation, provides differentiated support and extension, and observes learner progress.

INTRODUCTION (5 minutes)

The teacher introduces the theme of Consumer Protection using a short question, picture, object, audio clip or brief text. Learners share prior knowledge and connect it to the key inquiry question.

LESSON DEVELOPMENT

Activity 1 — Model and explore: The teacher models the relevant language skill using an example linked to consumer safety, quality, information and protection mechanisms. Learners listen, read or observe and identify key features.

Activity 2 — Guided practice: Identify punctuation in texts; punctuate sentences; edit a theme-related paragraph. The teacher prompts learners to use appropriate vocabulary and strategies.

Activity 3 — Independent application: Learners complete an individual task related to 2.5.1 Punctuation marks, then check their work against the success criteria. Learners requiring support use sentence starters, word banks or a worked example; extension learners create a more complex response.

Activity 4 — Sharing and feedback: Selected learners present responses. Peers give constructive feedback on accuracy, clarity and relevance. The teacher addresses misconceptions and reinforces the lesson focus.

ASSESSMENT

Oral questions; observation checklist; learner participation; reading or speaking performance; written exercise or product; peer/self-assessment, as appropriate to the skill.

CONCLUSION (5 minutes)

Learners summarise what they learned and answer: How does punctuation guide readers? The teacher gives a short follow-up task linked to the theme.
