GRADE 8 CHRISTIAN RELIGIOUS EDUCATION (CRE) – LESSON PLAN

School: _____ Teacher: _____ TSC No.: _____

Learning Area: Christian Religious Education (CRE) Grade: 8 Year: 2027 Term: Full Year

Week: 1 Lesson: 1 Date: _____ Time: _____ Roll: _____

Strand: 1.0 Creation
Sub-strand: 1.1 Origin and Consequences of Sin
Lesson focus: Meaning and origin of sin in the creation accounts

LESSON LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to:
Knowledge: Identify the origin of sin from the scriptures provided.
Skills: Examine the consequences of sin after the fall of man.
Attitudes: Pray to God to overcome temptations in day-to-day life.

Key Inquiry Question: Why is it important to consider the consequences of something before acting?

Learning Resources: Good News Bible; KICD-approved CRE learner's materials; relevant charts, flashcards, pictures, posters and journals; hymn books or audio-visual/digital resources where available.

Organisation of Learning: Whole-class engagement, pairs and small collaborative groups; individual reflection and presentation. Provide accessible alternatives and respectful participation.

INTRODUCTION

Welcome learners and establish a respectful, supportive atmosphere. Use a short question, picture, scenario, scripture quotation or recap linked to the lesson focus. Elicit prior knowledge, clarify key vocabulary and introduce the key inquiry question.

LESSON DEVELOPMENT

Activity 1 – Engage with the content: Learners read, listen to or observe the selected biblical text or learning resource. They identify key people, events, ideas and unfamiliar terms. The teacher guides comprehension through focused questions.

Activity 2 – Explore and collaborate: In groups, learners examine the lesson focus, locate relevant evidence in the text, discuss the meaning and record their findings. The teacher moves between groups, probes reasoning and supports learners who need assistance.

Activity 3 – Apply and communicate: Learners connect the lesson to an age-appropriate situation at home, school, church or in the community. They present a short report, chart, role-play, sequence, written response or reflection. Peers ask questions and offer constructive feedback.

Activity 4 – Consolidate: Learners summarise the central Christian teaching and identify one practical action or value arising from the lesson. The teacher corrects misconceptions using the relevant scripture and curriculum content.

CONCLUSION AND ASSESSMENT

Revisit the key inquiry question. Assess learning through oral questions, observation, checklist, written exit response, journal entry, peer/self-assessment or a short presentation. Give feedback and assign a relevant follow-up task.

Assessment evidence: Learner explanations, accurate use of the biblical account, group contribution, completed written/chart/role-play task and ability to relate the teaching to daily life.

Reflection / Self-remarks: What was achieved? Which learners need support or extension? What should be improved in the next lesson?

Activity 2 – Explore and collaborate: In groups, learners examine the lesson focus, locate relevant evidence in the text, discuss the meaning and record their findings. The teacher moves between groups, probes reasoning and supports learners who need assistance.

Activity 3 – Apply and communicate: Learners connect the lesson to an age-appropriate situation at home, school, church or in the community. They present a short report, chart, role-play, sequence, written response or reflection. Peers ask questions and offer constructive feedback.

Activity 4 – Consolidate: Learners summarise the central Christian teaching and identify one practical action or value arising from the lesson. The teacher corrects misconceptions using the relevant scripture and curriculum content.

CONCLUSION AND ASSESSMENT

Revisit the key inquiry question. Assess learning through oral questions, observation, checklist, written exit response, journal entry, peer/self-assessment or a short presentation. Give feedback and assign a relevant follow-up task.

Assessment evidence: Learner explanations, accurate use of the biblical account, group contribution, completed written/chart/role-play task and ability to relate the teaching to daily life.

Reflection / Self-remarks: What was achieved? Which learners need support or extension? What should be improved in the next lesson?

At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to:
Knowledge: Describe the appointment of Saul as king of Israel.
Skills: Identify qualities portrayed by Saul as a leader.
Attitudes: Appreciate the need for integrity and responsibility in leadership.

Key Inquiry Question: What lessons can be learnt from Saul's leadership?

Learning Resources: Good News Bible; KICD-approved CRE learner's materials; relevant charts, flashcards, pictures, posters and journals; hymn books or audio-visual/digital resources where available.

Organisation of Learning: Whole-class engagement, pairs and small collaborative groups; individual reflection and presentation. Provide accessible alternatives and respectful participation.

INTRODUCTION

Welcome learners and establish a respectful, supportive atmosphere. Use a short question, picture, scenario, scripture quotation or recap linked to the lesson focus. Elicit prior knowledge, clarify key vocabulary and introduce the key inquiry question.

LESSON DEVELOPMENT

Activity 1 – Engage with the content: Learners read, listen to or observe the selected biblical text or learning resource. They identify key people, events, ideas and unfamiliar terms. The teacher guides comprehension through focused questions.

Activity 2 – Explore and collaborate: In groups, learners examine the lesson focus, locate relevant evidence in the text, discuss the meaning and record their findings. The teacher moves between groups, probes reasoning and supports learners who need assistance.

Activity 3 – Apply and communicate: Learners connect the lesson to an age-appropriate situation at home, school, church or in the community. They present a short report, chart, role-play, sequence, written response or reflection. Peers ask questions and offer constructive feedback.

Activity 4 – Consolidate: Learners summarise the central Christian teaching and identify one practical action or value arising from the lesson. The teacher corrects misconceptions using the relevant scripture and curriculum content.

CONCLUSION AND ASSESSMENT

Revisit the key inquiry question. Assess learning through oral questions, observation, checklist, written exit response, journal entry, peer/self-assessment or a short presentation. Give feedback and assign a relevant follow-up task.

Assessment evidence: Learner explanations, accurate use of the biblical account, group contribution, completed written/chart/role-play task and ability to relate the teaching to daily life.

Reflection / Self-remarks: What was achieved? Which learners need support or extension? What should be improved in the next lesson?

Sub-strand: 3.3 Healing of the Paralytic
Lesson focus: Applying the lessons in daily life

LESSON LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to:
Knowledge: Describe the miracle of healing the paralytic.
Skills: Interpret lessons learnt from the miracle for application in day-to-day life.
Attitudes: Appreciate the power and compassion of Jesus Christ.

Key Inquiry Question: What lessons can be learnt from the healing of the paralytic?

Learning Resources: Good News Bible; KICD-approved CRE learner's materials; relevant charts, flashcards, pictures, posters and journals; hymn books or audio-visual/digital resources where available.

Organisation of Learning: Whole-class engagement, pairs and small collaborative groups; individual reflection and presentation. Provide accessible alternatives and respectful participation.

INTRODUCTION

Welcome learners and establish a respectful, supportive atmosphere. Use a short question, picture, scenario, scripture quotation or recap linked to the lesson focus. Elicit prior knowledge, clarify key vocabulary and introduce the key inquiry question.

LESSON DEVELOPMENT

Activity 1 – Engage with the content: Learners read, listen to or observe the selected biblical text or learning resource. They identify key people, events, ideas and unfamiliar terms. The teacher guides comprehension through focused questions.

Activity 2 – Explore and collaborate: In groups, learners examine the lesson focus, locate relevant evidence in the text, discuss the meaning and record their findings. The teacher moves between groups, probes reasoning and supports learners who need assistance.

Activity 3 – Apply and communicate: Learners connect the lesson to an age-appropriate situation at home, school, church or in the community. They present a short report, chart, role-play, sequence, written response or reflection. Peers ask questions and offer constructive feedback.

Activity 4 – Consolidate: Learners summarise the central Christian teaching and identify one practical action or value arising from the lesson. The teacher corrects misconceptions using the relevant scripture and curriculum content.

CONCLUSION AND ASSESSMENT

Revisit the key inquiry question. Assess learning through oral questions, observation, checklist, written exit response, journal entry, peer/self-assessment or a short presentation. Give feedback and assign a relevant follow-up task.

Assessment evidence: Learner explanations, accurate use of the biblical account, group contribution, completed written/chart/role-play task and ability to relate the teaching to daily life.

Reflection / Self-remarks: What was achieved? Which learners need support or extension? What should be improved in the next lesson?

Week: 16 Lesson: 4 Date: _____ Time: _____ Roll: _____

Strand: 4.0 Teachings of Jesus Christ
Sub-strand: 4.2 The Lost Sheep
Lesson focus: Applying the parable in the community

LESSON LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to:
Knowledge: Narrate the parable of the Lost Sheep.
Skills: Interpret lessons learnt from the parable for application in day-to-day life.
Attitudes: Demonstrate care and concern for others.

Key Inquiry Question: What does the parable of the Lost Sheep teach Christians about caring for others?

Learning Resources: Good News Bible; KICD-approved CRE learner's materials; relevant charts, flashcards, pictures, posters and journals; hymn books or audio-visual/digital resources where available.

Organisation of Learning: Whole-class engagement, pairs and small collaborative groups; individual reflection and presentation. Provide accessible alternatives and respectful participation.

INTRODUCTION

Welcome learners and establish a respectful, supportive atmosphere. Use a short question, picture, scenario, scripture quotation or recap linked to the lesson focus. Elicit prior knowledge, clarify key vocabulary and introduce the key inquiry question.

LESSON DEVELOPMENT

Activity 1 – Engage with the content: Learners read, listen to or observe the selected biblical text or learning resource. They identify key people, events, ideas and unfamiliar terms. The teacher guides comprehension through focused questions.

Activity 2 – Explore and collaborate: In groups, learners examine the lesson focus, locate relevant evidence in the text, discuss the meaning and record their findings. The teacher moves between groups, probes reasoning and supports learners who need assistance.

Activity 3 – Apply and communicate: Learners connect the lesson to an age-appropriate situation at home, school, church or in the community. They present a short report, chart, role-play, sequence, written response or reflection. Peers ask questions and offer constructive feedback.

Activity 4 – Consolidate: Learners summarise the central Christian teaching and identify one practical action or value arising from the lesson. The teacher corrects misconceptions using the relevant scripture and curriculum content.

CONCLUSION AND ASSESSMENT

Revisit the key inquiry question. Assess learning through oral questions, observation, checklist, written exit response, journal entry, peer/self-assessment or a short presentation. Give feedback and assign a relevant follow-up task.

Activity 2 – Explore and collaborate: In groups, learners examine the lesson focus, locate relevant evidence in the text, discuss the meaning and record their findings. The teacher moves between groups, probes reasoning and supports learners who need assistance.

Activity 3 – Apply and communicate: Learners connect the lesson to an age-appropriate situation at home, school, church or in the community. They present a short report, chart, role-play, sequence, written response or reflection. Peers ask questions and offer constructive feedback.

Activity 4 – Consolidate: Learners summarise the central Christian teaching and identify one practical action or value arising from the lesson. The teacher corrects misconceptions using the relevant scripture and curriculum content.

CONCLUSION AND ASSESSMENT

Revisit the key inquiry question. Assess learning through oral questions, observation, checklist, written exit response, journal entry, peer/self-assessment or a short presentation. Give feedback and assign a relevant follow-up task.

Assessment evidence: Learner explanations, accurate use of the biblical account, group contribution, completed written/chart/role-play task and ability to relate the teaching to daily life.

Reflection / Self-remarks: What was achieved? Which learners need support or extension? What should be improved in the next lesson?

Learning Resources: Good News Bible; KICD-approved CRE learner's materials; relevant charts, flashcards, pictures, posters and journals; hymn books or audio-visual/digital resources where available.

Organisation of Learning: Whole-class engagement, pairs and small collaborative groups; individual reflection and presentation. Provide accessible alternatives and respectful participation.

INTRODUCTION

Welcome learners and establish a respectful, supportive atmosphere. Use a short question, picture, scenario, scripture quotation or recap linked to the lesson focus. Elicit prior knowledge, clarify key vocabulary and introduce the key inquiry question.

LESSON DEVELOPMENT

Activity 1 – Engage with the content: Learners read, listen to or observe the selected biblical text or learning resource. They identify key people, events, ideas and unfamiliar terms. The teacher guides comprehension through focused questions.

Activity 2 – Explore and collaborate: In groups, learners examine the lesson focus, locate relevant evidence in the text, discuss the meaning and record their findings. The teacher moves between groups, probes reasoning and supports learners who need assistance.

Activity 3 – Apply and communicate: Learners connect the lesson to an age-appropriate situation at home, school, church or in the community. They present a short report, chart, role-play, sequence, written response or reflection. Peers ask questions and offer constructive feedback.

Activity 4 – Consolidate: Learners summarise the central Christian teaching and identify one practical action or value arising from the lesson. The teacher corrects misconceptions using the relevant scripture and curriculum content.

CONCLUSION AND ASSESSMENT

Revisit the key inquiry question. Assess learning through oral questions, observation, checklist, written exit response, journal entry, peer/self-assessment or a short presentation. Give feedback and assign a relevant follow-up task.

Assessment evidence: Learner explanations, accurate use of the biblical account, group contribution, completed written/chart/role-play task and ability to relate the teaching to daily life.

Reflection / Self-remarks: What was achieved? Which learners need support or extension? What should be improved in the next lesson?

Week: 26 Lesson: 2 Date: _____ Time: _____ Roll: _____

Strand: 6.0 Christian Living Today
Sub-strand: 6.4 Bullying
Lesson focus: Effects of bullying on individuals and families

LESSON LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of the lesson, the learner should be able to:
Knowledge: Identify causes of bullying at school and in the community.
Skills: Analyse effects of bullying on the individual and the family.
Attitudes: Model the value of love in interactions with others.

Key Inquiry Question: Why is bullying unacceptable?

Learning Resources: Good News Bible; KICD-approved CRE learner's materials; relevant charts, flashcards, pictures, posters and journals; hymn books or audio-visual/digital resources where available.

Organisation of Learning: Whole-class engagement, pairs and small collaborative groups; individual reflection and presentation. Provide accessible alternatives and respectful participation.

INTRODUCTION

Welcome learners and establish a respectful, supportive atmosphere. Use a short question, picture, scenario, scripture quotation or recap linked to the lesson focus. Elicit prior knowledge, clarify key vocabulary and introduce the key inquiry question.

LESSON DEVELOPMENT

Activity 1 – Engage with the content: Learners read, listen to or observe the selected biblical text or learning resource. They identify key people, events, ideas and unfamiliar terms. The teacher guides comprehension through focused questions.

Activity 2 – Explore and collaborate: In groups, learners examine the lesson focus, locate relevant evidence in the text, discuss the meaning and record their findings. The teacher moves between groups, probes reasoning and supports learners who need assistance.

Activity 3 – Apply and communicate: Learners connect the lesson to an age-appropriate situation at home, school, church or in the community. They present a short report, chart, role-play, sequence, written response or reflection. Peers ask questions and offer constructive feedback.

Activity 4 – Consolidate: Learners summarise the central Christian teaching and identify one practical action or value arising from the lesson. The teacher corrects misconceptions using the relevant scripture and curriculum content.

CONCLUSION AND ASSESSMENT

Revisit the key inquiry question. Assess learning through oral questions, observation, checklist, written exit response, journal entry, peer/self-assessment or a short presentation. Give feedback and assign a relevant follow-up task.

Assessment evidence: Learner explanations, accurate use of the biblical account, group contribution, completed written/chart/role-play task and ability to relate the teaching to daily life.

Activity 1 – Engage with the content: Learners read, listen to or observe the selected biblical text or learning resource. They identify key people, events, ideas and unfamiliar terms. The teacher guides comprehension through focused questions.

Activity 2 – Explore and collaborate: In groups, learners examine the lesson focus, locate relevant evidence in the text, discuss the meaning and record their findings. The teacher moves between groups, probes reasoning and supports learners who need assistance.

Activity 3 – Apply and communicate: Learners connect the lesson to an age-appropriate situation at home, school, church or in the community. They present a short report, chart, role-play, sequence, written response or reflection. Peers ask questions and offer constructive feedback.

Activity 4 – Consolidate: Learners summarise the central Christian teaching and identify one practical action or value arising from the lesson. The teacher corrects misconceptions using the relevant scripture and curriculum content.

CONCLUSION AND ASSESSMENT

Revisit the key inquiry question. Assess learning through oral questions, observation, checklist, written exit response, journal entry, peer/self-assessment or a short presentation. Give feedback and assign a relevant follow-up task.

Assessment evidence: Learner explanations, accurate use of the biblical account, group contribution, completed written/chart/role-play task and ability to relate the teaching to daily life.

Reflection / Self-remarks: What was achieved? Which learners need support or extension? What should be improved in the next lesson?
